This class meets with another CLAS-C 413, FINA-A 413 and FINA-A 580. A survey of the art and archaeology of Greece from the Dark Ages (ca. 1000 BC) via the Archaic and the Classical eras to the beginning of the Hellenistic period in the late 4th century BC, this class covers the acme of ancient Greek civilization and deals with famous monuments of art and architecture like the Parthenon, classical Greek sculptures, and vase paintings. Attention will be given to the formal development, as well as to the function and social-historical context of Greek art and architecture.