This course is an introduction to abstract algebra. We will be using M. Artin’s “Algebra” and will concentrate on some in-depth study of linear algebra and group theory. The participants will be required to handle rigorous mathematical proofs, although no previous experience with rigorous mathematics is a prerequisite. This course will continue in the Spring semester as S-404.