EDUC L239 (Fall 2014)

“Language and Learning”

A practical course where you will learn about language and engage in the campus community.

- Explore current language-related issues that have significant impact on formal and informal education.
- Forge connections as tutors and conversation partners for English learners.
- Develop Community Literacy Nights to support bilingual students and families in the community.

Topics will include:

- Translingualism, Multilingualism & Bilingualism
- Dialects
- Heritage languages
- Language-in-education policy
- Language revitalization
- Language learning
- Basic language principles for teachers

EDUC L239 Fall 2014
Wednesdays 9:30am-12:15pm
Wright Education Building
Room 1201
Professor Beth Lewis Samuelson
blsamuel@indiana.edu

Service-learning component:
15 hours of conversation partner and tutoring activities with English learners
Hutton Honors College course
IUB GenEd S&H credit