P: Students must be admitted to the Hutton Honors College or the Business Honors Program.

Students are introduced to oral communication in business contexts. The course focus is on theory-based skill development that will enable students to deliver audience-centered messages, work in teams, and analyze and develop oral arguments. Students are given an additional opportunity to engage in a social or political communication exercise. Students cannot receive credit for both C106 and (X106, C104 or X104).

NOTE: Students, who are required to take SLST-T 101 courses, must complete those courses before taking C106.
