Meets with SPEA-V 435

This course introduces students to the theories and techniques of alternative dispute resolution. The course covers interest-based negotiation, mediation, arbitration, fact-finding, early neutral evaluation, and other techniques used in business, labor relations, environmental disputes, family relations, and international affairs.

The honors version of this course requires consent of SPEA Honors advisor. Course covers same content as SPEA-V 435; however, honors students will complete advanced coursework.
