Billi and Ted are in danger of failing their big semester presentation! A mysterious stranger, claiming to be from a future where their scientific discoveries bring world peace, helps them collect historical figures to make their presentation fantastic. Using futuristic neutrino technology, they transport themselves through time to collect Einstein, Franklin, Tesla, Maxwell, Newton, and Curie. These famous scientists showcase radical physics demos such as The Deadly Bed of Nails, Liquid Nitrogen, and Awesome Explosions. They combine their knowledge of science to make a presentation of epic proportions, including a big finale of Ruben’s Tube rock music and Oil Drum percussion!
