Why Learn A World Language?

- In an increasingly globalized world, the knowledge of a world language becomes an indispensable skill important not only for personal enrichment, but also for broadening employment opportunities.
- According to a study from the University of Chicago, knowledge of a world language helps you boost decision-making skills.
- Students who study world languages score higher on standardized tests as a study from York University in Toronto showed.
- Knowledge of a world language increases your chances of landing a good job, as demonstrated in a recent poll in The Economist.
- An MIT study shows that people who know two or more languages earn an average of $128,000 more over their lifetimes.
- Learning a second language has compelling health benefits - a study from York University in Toronto connects the prevention of the onset of dementia with foreign language learning.

Why Learn Indonesian?

- Indonesian is spoken by over 300 million people in Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, and Brunei.
- Indonesian is the national language of Indonesia and is widely used in the media and in business.
- Learning Indonesian can open up opportunities for travel and business in Indonesia and across the Asia-Pacific region.
- Indonesian is a fun and fascinating language to learn, with a rich culture and history.

Why Study Indonesian with CLE?

- CLE offers a variety of Indonesian language courses for all levels, from beginner to advanced.
- Our experienced instructors are knowledgeable about the Indonesian language and culture.
- CLE offers a supportive learning environment to help you succeed.

Contact Information

Center for Language Excellence
Indiana University - Bloomington
College of Arts and Sciences
Main Office:
1900 E. Tenth Street
Eisenmann Hall 1131
Bloomington, IN 47406-7512
Outpost Office:
Global & International Studies Building
355 N. Jordan Ave., GA 1024
Bloomington, IN 47405-1105
iucle@indiana.edu
812.855.4060
www.indiana.edu/~iucle/

For more information regarding Majors, Minors, courses, and other available resources in this language:

Southeast Asian Studies
Indiana University - Bloomington
College of Arts and Sciences
School of Global and International Studies
Global & International Studies Building
355 N. Jordan Ave., GA 2007
Bloomington, IN 47405-1105
seas@indiana.edu
812.856.3304
http://seas.indiana.edu/
Studying Indonesian (Bahasa Indonesia) opens you to the rich culture of the dynamic Indonesian Archipelago. This chain of islands stretches along the equator between two continents, Asia and Australia, as well as two oceans, the Indian and the Pacific.

Currently, Indonesian is on the U.S. government’s list of critical languages. The geopolitical position of Indonesia as the largest Muslim country in the world has made the language all the more important.

In the U.S., fewer than 300 students enrolled in Indonesian language courses in 2009. Given the large number of people that speak Indonesian and the small number of American students that study it, there are great opportunities for anyone that chooses to take Indonesian!

A working knowledge of Indonesian will also help you understand the literature, arts, history, movies, politics, economy, and other aspects of Indonesian people’s lives.

Who speaks Indonesian?
Indonesian is spoken by 250 million people living throughout Indonesia. It is the national language that unites the country of over 400 indigenous languages.

Interesting Facts about Indonesia:
- The Indonesian archipelago consists of more than 17,000 islands.
- The Komodo Dragon, which is the largest lizard in the world, can be found on the Indonesian islands of Komodo and Rinca.
- Orangutan (orang nutan) means “men of the forest” in Indonesian.
- Indonesian Batik, a type of local fabric, is on UNESCO’s list of the world’s intangible cultural heritage.
- Borobudur, located in Central Java, is the largest Buddhist temple in the world.
- Indonesia is on the U.S. government’s list of critical languages.