

NOTICE TO DISREGARD

If you receive a notification from the Registrar's Office at Indiana University stating that you must be on campus for registration you may disregard that notice. Your registration is taken care of through the Geologic Field Station office and does not require your participation on campus.