Good afternoon, Indiana Teachers of Japanese!

October 21, 2015

For almost 54 years, Indiana high school students have been traveling with the Indiana University Honors Program in Foreign Languages (IUHPFL) to various countries for 5 to 6 week summer study abroad programs. Our current programs in Austria, Chile, China, France, Mexico and Spain provide a unique cultural experience to advance students’ acquisition of their selected second language.

We are excited to announce the decision to expand the IUHPFL program into Osaka, Japan for Summer 2017! We are eager to begin collaborating with you and your students to share this invaluable language immersion opportunity. Starting in Fall 2016, we will begin recruiting high school Japanese students of level III or higher. Preference will be given to sophomore, junior, and senior students.

If you are interested in learning more about the program, we would be happy to meet with you at this fall’s Indiana Foreign Language Teachers Association (IFLTA) conference. We will have a table there on both Friday and Saturday, and we will also attend the breakout sessions for teachers of specific languages, including Japanese. Please be sure to introduce yourself to us!

The annual IFLTA Conference will be held on November 6-7 in Indianapolis at the Sheraton at Keystone Crossing Hotel. This is a conference for K-12 world language teachers of French, Spanish, German, Russian, Chinese, Japanese, and Latin. If you have any other questions, please don’t hesitate to email or call our office. For more information about the program, please visit the link to our website below.

We look forward to talking with you!

Kind regards,
