IU Honors Program in Foreign Languages
Osaka, Japan — Summer 2017

WHO CAN APPLY:

WHAT:
Our 5-6 week summer program in Osaka promises students a unique opportunity to immerse themselves in the Japanese language and culture under the guidance of highly qualified instructors. Courses include Grammar, Communication, Phonetics, Literature, and Culture. Students also engage in afternoon activities, such as art, music, sports, dance and theater. Students live with dedicated host families and see important historical sites like Kyoto, Koyasan, and Tokyo.

Onsite coordination is provided by CET Academic Programs and includes:
- Vetting and training of Host Families
- Excursion planning and logistics
- Travel insurance
- Safety training and emergency support

WHEN:
5-6 weeks during June and July 2017. Students apply in Fall 2016.