

VITA

Christine Barbour
January 2002

Place and Date of Birth:

Ann Arbor, Michigan; June 9, 1955

Address:

Dept. of Political Science
Indiana University
Bloomington, IN 47405

Telephone:

Office: 812/855-6308 [fax: 812/855-2027]
Home: 812/876-1267
E-mail: barbour@indiana.edu

Education:

Ph.D., Political Science; Minor, West European Studies, Indiana University, 1990
M.A., Political Science, Indiana University, 1980
B.A., Political Science, Indiana University, 1979

Dissertation:

Liberal and Social Democracy: Political Culture in the United States and Sweden

Employment:

2000-present, Clinical Assistant Professor, Dept. of Political Science, Indiana University

1993-2000, Assistant Professor, Part-time and Undergraduate Coordinator, Dept. of Political Science, Indiana University (LWOP Spring, 1998-Spring, 1999.)

1990-1993, Visiting Assistant Professor, Dept. of Political Science, Indiana University

Awards and Fellowships:

1998, 1997, Teaching Excellence Recognition Award, Indiana University College of Arts and Sciences, awarded by the Dept. of Political Science. The Dept. awards various levels of recognition for teaching, signified by different monetary levels of award. I received the highest level in both years.

1997, Brown Derby Award for Excellence in Teaching, Indiana University Chapter of Society of Professional Journalists

1995-1996, Indiana University Student Alumni Association Student Choice Award for Outstanding Teaching

Teaching Fields:

American Politics, American Political Thought, Comparative Politics, European Politics, European Community, Ancient and Modern Political Philosophy

Courses Taught:

Introduction to Political Theory
History of Political Theory I & II
American Political Thought (lecture course and seminar)
European Political Systems
European Community (lecture course and seminar)
Introduction to American Politics
American Political Controversies

2001 Courses

Spring: One approx. 250 person section of Y103 plus Honor's discussion section.

Fall: One approx. 250 person section of Y103, plus Honor's discussion section.

Publications:

Christine Barbour and Gerald Wright, Keeping the Republic: Power and Citizenship in American Politics. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 2003. Second edition. Due out, January, 2003.

Christine Barbour and Gerald Wright, Keeping the Republic: Power and Citizenship in American Politics. Brief edition. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 2001.

Christine Barbour and Gerald Wright, Keeping the Republic: Power and Citizenship in American Politics. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 2000. Election edition.

Christine Barbour and Gerald Wright, Keeping the Republic: Power and Citizenship in American Politics. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 2000. Introductory textbook in American politics.

Christine Barbour, Helping Students Become Critical Consumers of the Media, in Steven R. Knowlton and Betsy O. Barefoot, ed., Using National Newspapers in the College Classroom. University of South Carolina Monograph Series, No. 28. 1999. pp. 78-79.

Invited Talks and Service:

Fall, 2001. Designed and organized Y200 – September 11: Before and After.

October 20, 2001. Participated as panelist in Office for Women's Affairs Conference on Women.

September 24, 2001. Moderated Union Board Panel: "Is Peace a Possibility?"

September 21-23, 2001. Attended Project Vote Smart conference as consultant to reevaluate survey instrument and mission.

2001-1993. A Professor's Perspective. Annual series of talks (three to four per summer) for Freshmen Orientation. Audience is new freshmen and their parents. (Participation continued throughout 1998-1999 LWOP)

Present-1997. Member of the Advisory Board, New York Times Professors Expect the World. National advisory board on the use of the media in the classroom.

Present-1999. Faculty Advisor, Indiana Public Research Group (INPIRG)

Present-1998. Participant the Freshman Learning Project (FLP) colloquia series.

2001, 1999-1993. Participation in Exploring Majors, an Honor's Division panel, with representatives from the faculty of SPEA, Business, and Economics.

2000, Gave talks on 2000 election: October 5, Unitarian Universalist Church Alliance; December 4, Meadowood Retirement Home. Also gave several interviews on election to local papers.

2000, November 17-19. Attended Project Vote Smart conference as consultant (reevaluating its voter education mission).

2000, October. Featured author, with Gerald Wright, on WebCT.com. Participated in online discussion of Keeping the Republic, and election issues.

2000, Fall. Evaluated and ranked audience questions for Union Board sponsored talk by Colin Powell.

2000, April. Panelist at debate between John Hamilton and Paul Perry, candidates in Democratic primary for Indiana's 8th District, sponsored by College Democrats

1999, Fall, Faculty Participant on a Town Meeting on Large Classes organized by Instructional Support Services and the Dean of the Faculties

1999-1997. Annual talks in August, to Spanish students participating in La Caixa Program, under supervision of Office of International Programs, Patrick O Meara, Dean.

1998, Summer, Lilly Fellow. Participated in a series of teaching seminars and colloquia, with an eye to redesigning Y103 in order to reduce its high DFW rate, while maintaining academic rigor.

1998, Fall. FASE Mentor. Ended participation when I went on LWOP.

1998-1997, Faculty Advisor, Bloomington Chapter of Circle K (University level Kiwanis service organization).

1997. Reader, Wells Scholars Applications.

1997-1993. Participated in Dept. of Political Science Founder's Day Ceremonies.

1996, summer. Participated in a round table discussion on teaching in large classes for IFS-X (intensive freshmen seminar faculty).

1996, fall. "Back to School" lecture (to alumni) on the 1996 presidential campaign, for the I.U. Foundation's Class Campaign.

1996, fall. Participated on an Honor's Division panel, Winners and Losers in the 1996 Elections.

1996, fall. Served as a judge, I.U. Homecoming Parade.

1996, fall. Served as a judge, IUSA Campus Comedy Night.

1996, Student Alumni Association, Future Alumni dinner.

1996, October 2-8. Talks on The Gender Gap in the 1996 Election at four universities in Seoul, Korea.

1995. Red Carpet Days. Talks to high school students who are prospective freshmen at IU.

1993, 1994, Great Expectations. Lectures for incoming freshmen. (Program discontinued in 1995).

1992, The Gender Gap in the 1992 Election. Women in Sociology Colloquium Series, Department of Sociology, Indiana University.