WORK IN PROGRESS

"Political Preferences and Party Development in Post-Communist States: A New Approach with an Illustration of the Russian Case," Paper under review, Democratizatsiya.

"Majority Rule Program," book manuscript with William Bianco, Christopher Kam and Itai Sened.

"Explaining the Legislative Rise of Dominant Political Parties," with William Bianco, Christopher Kam and Itai Sened. This paper uses the game theoretic concept the uncovered set to show how some parties have significant advantages in legislative decision-making that enables them to consolidate their position as a dominant party.

"Political Trust and Post-Election Protest," revised paper with John Hulsey. This paper explores the relationship between political trust and the emergence of post-election protest in post-Soviet states. Unique data allow for a critical test of our theory as it applies to Ukraine.
