

Retiree Status Perks

Prepared for the Indiana University Retirees Association (Bloomington)

Parking

Permits for retired IU employees may be purchased online through the IU Parking Portal, or in person at the Parking Operations office, located in the Henderson garage. Retirees are eligible to purchase an “EM/RE” permit which is an EM-P (employee premium) permit at the price of an EM-S (employee standard) permit. Annual cost for the EM/RE permit is $197.04 for the 2018/2019 fiscal year.

Membership and Privileges

- Eligible to join the IU Retirees Association
- Retain IU Library system privileges and IU email account.
- Membership in the University Club, paid for by the office of the Vice Provost for Academic Affairs. Visit www.indiana.edu/~uclub/ for details.
- All emeriti faculty and librarians may participate in Emeriti House programs and services and automatically receive electronically the program calendar. All retired IU staff members are also invited to join the listserv (Email: emeriti@indiana.edu). Free parking is provided for programs attendees in the nearby Atwater Garage.
- A complete statement of BL-ACA-A8, the “Status and Privileges of Retired Faculty Members and Librarians,” is available in the IU Bloomington Academic Policies at <http://vpfaa.indiana.edu/policies/bloomington/academic-ranks/retired-faculty-librarians.shtml>.

Athletics

- Those with a current Indiana University Crimson Card ID may purchase IU Football and IU Men’s Basketball season tickets at the same 10% discount available to active employees. To receive the 10% discount, email your name, IU ID Number, and the department you retired from, to iuticket@indiana.edu.
- Admission to athletics events other than Football and Men’s Basketball is the same as for active Faculty and Staff employees.
- Priority Points that affect seating assignments for the IU Athletic events are retained.

Discounts

- Purchase IU software (Faculty Retirees) and hardware (Faculty and Staff Retirees) at a discount, subject to vendor agreements.
- Access to Recreation Sports facilities at rates equal to those of current Faculty and Staff (e.g. SRSC, Intramural Center, IU Outdoor Pool, and IU Tennis Center).
- Negotiated rates for hotels, rental cars, and airport parking. For more information, visit the IU Travel Management Services website at www.indiana.edu/~travel/discounts/discounts.shtml.

Freebies

- Home delivery of the Indiana Daily Student (contact 812-855-0763).
- Quarterly delivery of IU Alumni Magazine for IU Alumni (contact 812-855-4822).
- Retirees may register for IT Training Workshops at no charge, and may also download materials and exercise files for self-study at no cost (contact 812-855-7383 or email ittraining@iu.edu).
- Free use of the Campus Bus System and, with the Crimson Card ID (free), the Bloomington Transit buses.

Questions?  (812) 856-1234 | askhr@iu.edu