REQUEST FOR PERMISSION TO REGISTER FOR

JSTU-H 595 Direct Reading in Jewish Studies (1-4 cr)

Directed readings in various topics in Jewish Studies: topics, credit hours, and readings to be determined in consultation with a Jewish Studies faculty member with whom the graduate student wishes to work. May be repeated five times for up to 8 credit hours. Return completed form to Carolyn Lipson-Walker, clipsonw@indiana.edu, Global & International Studies Building, room 4005.

Credit hour guidelines: 1 credit courses usually require only a little writing and no cumulative research paper, whereas 3 or 4 credit courses typically meet each week and have a substantial research paper or similar final paper.

TITLE FOR DIRECTED READINGS: ____________________________________________________________

PRELIMINARY READING LIST:

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

PRELIMINARY WRITING ASSIGNMENTS:

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

CREDIT HOURS: __________

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

Approval of Faculty Member ___________________________ Date _____________

Approval of DGS (Sarah Imhoff; seimhoff@indiana.edu) ___________________________ Date _____________

RETURN COMPLETED FORM TO JSTU ADVISOR, CAROLYN LIPSON-WALKER (CLIPSONW@INDIANA.EDU)
GLOBAL & INTERNATIONAL STUDIES BUILDING, ROOM 4005