The Robert A. and Sandra S. Borns Jewish Studies Program at Indiana University invites applications for a Visiting Scholar for the 2015-2016 academic year. The Visiting Scholar will be expected to teach two semesters of Introductory Biblical Hebrew (one course in fall and one in spring). The position provides a stipend of $40,000, and the successful applicant will also be able to apply for some research funding from the Program. Ph.D. in Jewish Studies or a related field is desirable, but suitable ABD candidates will also be considered.

To apply for this position please submit the following: a cover letter, addressing your research agenda for the year, your aptitude and experience in Biblical Hebrew, and your approach to teaching the introductory course; an updated curriculum vitae; and three letters of reference.

Materials should be sent via mail to: Visiting Scholar Position, Borns Jewish Studies Program, Indiana University, Goodbody Hall 326, 1011 E. Third Street, Bloomington, IN 47405-7005. Materials may also be submitted via email to: iujsp@indiana.edu with the subject line “Visiting Scholar Position”.

Consideration of applications will begin on March 23, 2015 and continue until the position is filled.

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or identity, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status.