

Indiana University Jewish Studies Program
2008-2009 Sara and Albert Reuben Scholarships
To Support the Study of the Holocaust

Goodbody Hall 326
1001 E. Third Street
Bloomington, IN 47405-7005
(812) 855-0453
(812) 855-4314 Fax

Two $1,000 Scholarships

Application

Application deadline: Friday, February 29, 2008

Note: Current Jewish Studies majors, area certificate, and Hebrew minor students (registered in the Jewish Studies advisor's office) should use the alternative form to apply rather than this form. This form is to be used by all IUB students (undergraduate and graduate) who are applying for a Reuben Scholarship who are not Jewish Studies major, area certificate, or Hebrew minor students.

Please type or print in block letters.

I.General Information

Name _____
Last First Middle

Birth Date _____ Birthplace _____ Citizenship _____

IU Student ID Number _____

E-mail (include full address) _____

Local Address _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Permanent Address _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Are you a resident of the state/country listed as your permanent address? _____

If not, what is your state/country of residence? _____

II. Academic Status

Undergraduate Students

Major/s: _____ Minor/s: _____

Area Certificate: _____

Expected date of graduation: _____ Current GPA: _____

Current Class (freshman, sophomore, etc.) _____

Transfer students, please list previous colleges attended: _____

Graduate Students

_____ M.A. student _____ Ph.D. student

Home Department: _____

Please describe your progress toward your degree: _____

If known, please state topic of master's thesis/doctoral dissertation (please circle one) _____

Please list degrees received and universities attended: _____

III. Resume or c.v.

Please attach resume or c.v.

IV. Proposal

Please attach a one-page proposal setting forth how funding will further your study of the Holocaust. (The Reuben Scholarship may support funding to attend Holocaust-related conferences, to do research in archives and libraries, to subsidize a Holocaust-related internship, to engage in research and to support honors theses, master's theses, or a dissertation and other academic initiatives related to the Holocaust (during the academic year 2008-2009.)

Important Note: Reuben Scholarships can only be awarded in the fall and/or spring when the recipient is a full-time student. (Full-time can be defined as less than 12 hours for undergraduates in their final semester.)

Checklist of documents:

Please arrange to have the following documents sent to the Jewish Studies Program office by Friday, February 29, 2008.

_____ This application with a one 1 page proposal explaining how funding will further your study of the Holocaust.

_____ Your c.v. or resume.

_____ Two recommendation forms attached. These should be mailed directly to the Jewish Studies Program by IU faculty members. One form can be submitted by an associate instructor, but it is preferable to have both forms filled out by full-time faculty members.

Please list names, titles, and addresses of those from whom the JSP should expect to receive reference forms:

1) _____

2) _____

WAIVER OPTION FOR APPLICATION FILE AND PERSONAL RECOMMENDATIONS

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 opens many student records for the students' inspection. The law permits you to sign this waiver relinquishing your right to inspect this application file. Sign below if you give up your right to read this file. Do not sign if you wish to read it.

Applicant's Signature

Date

The deadline for application is Friday, February 29, 2008.

The application and all supporting documents should be mailed, faxed, or hand delivered to:

Robert A. and Sandra S. Borns Jewish Studies Program
Indiana University
Goodbody Hall 326
1011 E. Third Street
Bloomington, IN 47405-7005
(812) 855-0453 (phone)
(812) 855-4314 (FAX)

For information about scholarships and taxability, you may see <http://www.irs.gov/publications/p970/index.html>