National Hispanic Heritage Month
September 15—October 15

Hispanic Heritage Month Programs on WTIU
To read about them and watch short promo videos, click here: http://indianapublicmedia.org/about/national-hispanic-heritage-month-programs/wtiu/

September 16

Movie Night at the Park – Selena, 1997. 8pm at Butler Park (812 W. 9th St)
Free outdoor screening at the park. Bring a lawn chair, a blanket, a picnic basket and become immersed yourself in the iconic film Selena. The true story of the late Selena Quintanilla Perez, a Texas born Tejano singer who was one of the first artists to cross cultural boundaries with her music. Selena’s career was cut short in 1995. In subsequent years, Selena has become a cultural icon and a symbol of the Tejano music genre.

September 18, 2015

Cruz Reynoso: Sowing the Seeds of Justice – (2010), 12pm – 1pm in Maurer School of Law, Moot Court Room 213
The Latino Law Student Association is pleased to announce that the film Cruz Reynoso: Sowing the Seeds of Justice will be shown in the Moot Court Room. Cruz Reynoso, a trial lawyer in the legal system and a champion of agricultural workers. He was California’s first Latino Supreme Court justice and one of America's most astute law professors. Cruz Reynoso, author of the Bill Clinton-appointed Supreme Court Justice was a stalwart of the Commission on Civil Rights in 1994 and awarded him the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 2000. Reynoso’s career also included controversial relationships and encoun ters with his California colleagues and the California Governor Ronald Reagan. Hosted by, Latino Law Student Association, Labor and Employment Law Society and Pro Bono Immigration Project.

September 25, 2015

National Hispanic Heritage Month Reception, 4-6pm at the Mathers Museum of World Cultures (416 N Indiana Ave.)
Join us as we begin a month long celebration and recognize those who have made great contributions to the Latino community in Bloomington and beyond while enjoying some music and sampling delicious food. This event is open to all campus and community. Sponsored by La Casa, Latino Cultural Center, Latino Studies, Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, Latino Outreach of CFHD at the City of Bloomington and El Centro Comunal Latino. For more information email laca@indiana.edu.

September 26

El Centro Comunal Latino’s 10th Annual Soccer Tournament, 9am - 4pm at Bloomington West High School (201 N. Jordan St)
We are pleased to announce that our 10th annual soccer tournament, COPA Bloomington will take place this fall from September 20th through October 4th. This is a 6 v 6 v 6 soccer tournament which promotes healthy living and encourages community members to engage in friendly competition. The tournament takes place at Karet Farm Park and has prided itself on being one of the most diverse and affordable tournaments in town. Sponsored by El Centro Comunal Latino, The City of Bloomington’s Latino Programs and Outreach Department.

September 27

“Get to Know your Commission”, 6pm at La Casa
We invite you to come and chat with The City of Bloomington’s Commission on Hispanic and Latino Affairs. Join the commissioners as they talk about what the commission does and about Latino issues that arise in our community, all while enjoying some hot café. For more information: (812) 349-3860. Sponsored by City of Bloomington’s Latino Programs and Outreach Department.

September 28

Film “Relatos Salvajes”, 6pm at Ballentine Hall 310

September 29

Freshmen Family Weekend, La Casa
9am-3:30pm - Continental Breakfast (Desayuno continental) 10am-11am – Latino Student Panel: “What does it mean to be a Latino student at IU?” Discussion con estudiantes Latinos: “¿Qué es ser un estudiante latino en IU?” Sponsored by La Casa and La Casa Unidos.

September 30, 2015 and October 4

COopa Bloomington, 6-9pm at Karet Farm Park (2450 S. Endwright Rd.)
We are pleased to announce that our 9th annual soccer tournament, COopa Bloomington will take place this fall from September 30th through October 4th. This is a 6 v 6 v 6 soccer tournament which promotes healthy living and encourages community members to engage in friendly competition. The tournament takes place at Karet Farm Park and has prided itself on being one of the most diverse and affordable tournaments in town. Sponsored by El Centro Comunal Latino, The City of Bloomington’s Latino Programs and Outreach Department.

October 22

“Get to Know your Commission”, 6pm at La Casa
We invite you to come and chat with The City of Bloomington’s Commission on Hispanic and Latino Affairs. Join the commissioners as they talk about what the commission does and about Latino issues that arise in our community, all while enjoying some hot café. For more information: (812) 349-3860. Sponsored by City of Bloomington’s Latino Programs and Outreach Department.

October 29

Film “Liberador”, 6pm at Ballentine Hall 310
Venezuela’s Oscar submission for Best Foreign Film 2015. Dir. Alberto Arvelo. Venezuela, 2014. Simon Bolivar fought over 100 battles against the Spanish Empire in South America. He rode over 70,000 miles on horseback. His military campaigns covered twice the territory of Alexander the Great. His army never conquered, it liberated. For more info please contact Israel F. Herrera: herrera@indiana.edu.

October 30

The Politics of Gender and Sexuality, 4pm at the Presidents’ Room at the IMU
The aim of this roundtable is to present new perspectives in the studies of Latino/a sexuality and gender that moves us away from stereotypical representations, and that showcases the intersectionality and complexity of the performance/negotiation/production of desire and pleasure. Spurred by the work of scholars such as Toussaint and Spanish-speaking scholar Elena Moreno, the discussion will focus on the ways in which the discrimination/racism/heteronormativity myopic thinking can exert their effects on our community. It airs every Friday evening from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. This year during National Hispanic Heritage Month Hola Bloomington will produce a series of programs related to local Latino issues. Contact Anssel Gomez-Albeto at latinaprograms@bloomington.in.gov

November 14

Film “Desiring Gaze: Race, Sexuality, and Cuba-U.S. Relations” that examines the diverse ways that race and sexuality played into U.S.-Cuba relations without eliminating the possibility of pleasure? How do we as contemporary scholars understand desire and pleasure histori...
Interested in helping decorate and/or marching in the 2015 Homecoming parade? La Casa is hosting a float and will be passing out Program, Asian Culture Center, Latino Cultural Center. http://pages.iu.edu/~alredela/ppp.html has projected the country will be “majority-minority” by the year 2042. Organized by Asian American Studies Program, Latino Studies and the IU College of Arts and Science as part of the Themester 2015’s @Work: The Nature of Labor on a Changing Planet series.

During the summer of 1965, Filipino agricultural laborers went on strike in the Coachella Valley of California. Upon seeing the success of the César Chávez and Dolores Huerta’s National Farm Workers Association, Filipino laborers consolidated their organizing strategies under the National Farm Workers United Farm Workers (UFW). It was the struggle in the fields that would have the greatest impact for both Chicanas/os and Filipino-Americans during the civil rights movement. Many of us may have heard of César Chávez and Dolores Huerta. But few know of the efforts by Filipino agricultural laborers, Larry Ilagan, Philip Vera Cruz and Pete Velasco. Join us in a discussion of the possibilities and fragileness of activist like Andy Imutan, Larry Itliong, Philip Vera Cruz and Pete Velasco. Join us in a discussion of the possibilities and fragileness of

During the fall semester of 1965, César Chávez and Dolores Huerta began organizing field workers into the National Farm Workers Association (NFWA), later known as the United Farm Workers (UFW). It was the struggle in the fields that would have the greatest impact for both Chicanas/os and Filipino-Americans during the civil rights movement. Many of us may have heard of César Chávez and Dolores Huerta. But few know of the efforts by Filipino agricultural laborers, Larry Ilagan, Philip Vera Cruz and Pete Velasco. Join us in a discussion of the possibilities and fragileness of activist like Andy Imutan, Larry Itliong, Philip Vera Cruz and Pete Velasco. Join us in a discussion of the possibilities and fragileness of