There are three gravel parking spaces to the north of the alley, directly behind the museum. These are labeled “Reserved for Wylie House” and are intended for visitors. An additional paved parking area is located on the south side of the alley, on the east side of the barn/education center, with one handicapped accessible space and two additional spaces. Parking on 2nd Street, directly in front of the museum and education center is either unrestricted or limited to 2 hours.