Friends of Mineralogy-Midwest Chapter's purpose is to promote interest in and knowledge of mineralogy, to advance mineralogical education and to protect and preserve mineral specimens. We also promote conservation of mineral localities. We want to further cooperation between amateur and professional and to encourage collection of minerals for educational value. We support publications about mineralogy and the programs of kindred organizations. This chapter is organized exclusively for education and scientific purposes. We are affiliated with the national organization, Friends of Mineralogy, Inc.

Membership shall be on a yearly basis, running from January 1 through December 31. Membership is of one class: Individual. The annual dues for an individual to be a member of the Midwest Chapter are: $15.00 for an individual and $10.00 for each additional individual (person of the same immediate family and household.)

The Chapter holds at least six regular meetings each year. The place and time of the meetings are announced in our newsletter.
