Discussants:

-Mintzi Martinez-Rivera a PhD student in Folklore and Anthropology will present “P’urhépecha Cosmology and the Idea of Reciprocity”. She will address different cultural realms, such as religious practices, stories, and myths and how reciprocity is expressed in them.

-Francisco Tandioy-Jansasoy a PhD student in Folklore will talk about “El Jardín de Taita Salvador Chasoy“ (The Garden of Taita Salvador Chasoy). He focuses on traditional medicine and myth of Sibundoy Valley in Colombia. He will discuss the mythic elements on this ancestral practice.

The purpose of this Forum is to provide students a space to showcase their research on minority languages and cultures and receive valuable feedback.

You are welcome to bring ideas that you want to share!