The Arabic Historical Novel in Morocco (and Elsewhere)

The Power of Corruption and the Corruption of Power

Monday February 27, 2017
Time: 7:00 PM
Faculty Room
IMU University Club

Roger Allen
University of Pennsylvania

Using well-known proverbs about the process of change and history Professor Allen will examine the recording of historical narratives and their fictional expressions in historical novels. The historical novel in Arabic is considered, with particular emphasis on the uses and abuses of power and the modern tradition of the Moroccan novel.

This event is free and open to the public. Light Refreshments will be provided.

For additional information please contact nelc@indiana.edu