The Fifteenth Annual Memorial Wadie Jwaideh Lecture

The Absent Secularists: Islam in the 2014 Tunisian Constitution

- Does state religion fit with democracy?
- How did the absence of secularists shape the outcome of the Tunisian Constitution?
- How was religion incorporated into the Constitution without sharia law?

Thursday, November 10, 2016
at 7:00 pm
Federal Room at the IMU
Open to the public

Light Refreshments will be provided.

Please direct any questions to nelc@indiana.edu or (812) 855 5993