The total fixed fee includes tuition, housing, breakfasts, excursions and health insurance valid during the program. In late April the Bloomington Bursar will send an invoice for the fees that are due May 10. Your prepayment and any IUB financial aid will be reflected as credits there. IUB Stafford loans will be disbursed in two payments. Please contact the Office of Financial Assistance with any questions concerning loan disbursement.

In order for your family to take advantage of government tax-saver benefit plans, your total program fee will be expressed as two separate charges on the Bursar's invoice. The fees listed as "IU-admin" are the instructional fees that qualify as educational costs. Those listed as "Miscellaneous" include all the non-instructional costs of the program, such as housing, meals and health insurance.

II. Variable program costs

Variable costs are paid in Dakar as you pay for additional meals, personal expenses, books and weekend travel. These costs can vary significantly from student to student depending on your lifestyle and travel plans. Students should budget around $550 for additional meals and $2,250 for airfare, books and personal expenses. These costs will also be affected by the changing value of the dollar.

IU Withdrawal and Refund Policy

Students who withdraw from IU administered programs are responsible for non-recoverable costs. Your Bursar account will be assessed an additional charge to cover any/all amounts that Overseas Study has committed or paid on your behalf and are non-recoverable at the time of withdrawal, possibly including housing, meals, transportation, and faculty or staff compensation.
