Checks should be payable to “The Hebrew University of Jerusalem”, One Battery Park Plaza, 25th Floor, New York, NY 10004.

*Based on published Hebrew University materials. Indiana University cannot guarantee the prices charged by Hebrew University and is not responsible for any price increase or change.

II. Fees Paid to Indiana University

Due December 10 to IUB Bursar
Overseas Study Fee (co-spons)	$440.00
IU Service Fee	200.00
Total fees to IU	$640.00

In late November you will be notified by the Bloomington bursar via e-mail that your statement is available for viewing and printing from the web through their QuickPay application, any applicable IUB financial aid will be reflected as credits there.

If your financial assistance is greater than the combined IU fees, the difference will be refunded to you. Bloomington campus students should arrange to have the refund deposited directly into their U.S. checking accounts, see the Bursar website for directions. If for some reason direct deposit is not an option, instruct the Bursar to mail a check to your permanent address where someone is authorized to open your mail and deposit the check into your bank account. It is your responsibility to send your payment to Hebrew University. IU will not send payments to Hebrew University on behalf of the students.

The Overseas Study Fee (co-spons) that you are charged is an unremittable portion of IU tuition, which cannot be waived if you are to receive IU credit. It is used to retire IU's construction bonds and is not retained by the Office of Overseas Study.

The IU Service fee underwrites the activities of the Office of Overseas Study.

III. Other Program Costs

In addition to the fees paid to IU and Hebrew University, it is estimated you will need $4,000 for housing and meals, about $300 for course materials and textbooks, and $1,500 for personal expenses. These sums are estimates and may vary from one student to another depending on your lifestyle and budget.

IU Refund Policy

Once paid, the $200 IU Service Fee is non-refundable. The Overseas Study Fee is refunded on a cost-recoverable basis only.
