

Table with 3 columns: Fee Category, Resident, Non-resident. Rows include Total fixed fee to IU, Due November 9 to Overseas Study: Non-refundable prepayment, Due December 10 to Bloomington Bursar: OVST fees, OVST Miscellaneous charges, Nonrefundable prepayment credit.

The IU fees cover tuition, one month's housing, and health insurance during the program dates. In late November you will be notified by the Bloomington bursar via e-mail that your statement is available for viewing and printing from the web through their QuickPay application, the $500 prepayment and any applicable IUB financial aid will be reflected as credits there.

II. Variable Program Costs

Variable on-site costs are paid abroad as you pay for rent, groceries, meals, personal expenses, and vacation travel. These costs vary significantly from student to student because they are based on your individual spending habits and lifestyle. They are also affected by the exchange rate of the dollar. Use them only as an approximate guide.

Table with 4 columns: Item, Min Cost, Max Cost, Range. Rows include Dorm rent, Meals, Books, Personal Expenses, Vacation Travel, and Variable Cost Range.

To estimate the total cost of study abroad for you, add the resident or nonresident payment to IU to the lower end of the variable cost range if you know how to manage on a smaller budget, or to the higher end of the range if you plan extensive travel and want considerable freedom to purchase clothing and eat out.

IU Withdrawal and Refund Policy

Students who withdraw from IU administered programs are responsible for non-recoverable costs. Your Bursar account will be assessed an additional charge to cover any/all amounts that Overseas Study has committed or paid on your behalf and are non-recoverable at the time of withdrawal, possibly including housing, meals, transportation, and faculty or staff compensation.
