

The IUS Overseas Study program invites you to discover

China: The Eternal Empire

A 16-Day China Study-Tour

Walk along the breathtaking Great Wall

Follow in the footsteps of the emperors at the Palace Museum

Explore Qufu, the birth place of Confucius

Come face-to-face with the famed Terre Cotta Warriors of Xian

Climb Mt. Tai, one of China's most sacred mountains

Be dazzled by Shanghai's architectural miracles

- ✚ Students can earn 3 credit hours. Non-students are also welcome to participate.
- ✚ A valid passport and Chinese visa are required for this trip. Please contact Dr. Shen for passport and visa application information and deadlines.
- ✚ The tour departs from Louisville on May 27, returning June 11, 2008.
- ✚ The estimated cost is $3,690, which includes international round trip airfare, train & bus travel in China, room & board based on double occupancy, entrance fees, health insurance, a contingency fund & gratuities for various services in China.
- ✚ Tuition, passport, and visa application fees are additional.
- ✚ Financial aid and scholarships are available to qualified students.

For more detailed information, please contact Dr. Yu Shen, Crestview Hall 139, by email at yshen@ius.edu, or by phone at 812-941-2533. Also see <http://www.ius.edu/IntPrograms/studyabroad.cfm>