

Paris-Photography

Summer 2008
IU Supplement

The Paris Predeparture Guide prepared by IES provides important information about the program, and you should read it with care. The following supplemental information pertains to Indiana University students only.

IES AND IU

The Institute for the International Education of Students (IES) is a nonprofit organization that administers nearly 75 study abroad programs in 17 countries in Asia, Australia, Europe and South America. More than 165 U.S. colleges and universities, including Indiana University, have formal agreements with IES, and their representatives work with the Institute to set academic policy and approve curricula. Through its office in Chicago, IES administers the Paris program during the academic year and the summer. The IU Office of Overseas Study has made special arrangements with IES for sponsorship of the Photography program in Paris.

Professor Jeff Wolin will teach the courses in Paris. Because he is from IU and familiar with IU policies and procedures, he may be able to provide special liaison and counsel to IU students. Note, however, that his role is primarily as an instructor. If you have questions regarding the academic program, housing, or getting around Paris, or in case of emergency, contact the IES staff in Paris.

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

You pay all program fees directly to Indiana University. Any questions regarding finances for the program, including financial aid, should be addressed to the Office of Overseas Study at Indiana University. Students from other U.S. universities have different arrangements with IES regarding fees and housing deposits.

COURSES

You will earn 3 IU credits in “Photography in Paris: Exploration of Place” (FINA-S 392 or -S 491) and 3 IU credits in “History of Modern Art” (FINA-A 342, fulfills SH, CS-B) for your course work on the IES program, and the grade will be computed in your GPA.
