Who We Are

The University Players is a student-run theatre organization at Indiana University dedicated to providing further opportunities in the areas of theatrical performance, production, management, and educational outreach to undergraduate students of all majors and backgrounds.

Who We Are Looking For:

Enthusiastic and dedicated students interested in any aspect of theatre, including acting, directing, playwriting, lighting, costuming, set design, stage management, marketing, and fundraising. Contact any board member and register on our email list for information about involvement.

Membership

Who can become a member: Any undergraduate student interested in the theatrical arts.

What you get:

- Monthly meetings
- Monthly newsletter and notification of opportunities
- Opportunities to see department shows FREE!
- Discounted prices for University Players productions, and local theatre productions
- Reduced prices for theatre excursions to the Humana Festival and Indiana Rep Theatre
- Opportunities to participate in special lectures and workshops
- Hands on practical experience producing your own shows

How much: $10 annual membership fee gives you all the opportunities listed above.

When you can join: Any time during the school year. Just fill out the form in this brochure and return it with your $10 cash/check/money order to the University Players mailbox in TH A300.
