ACCESS TO THE PAST:
MEMORY TRANSLATION & POLISH LITERATURE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9TH
3:00 PM
COLLEGE ARTS & HUMANITIES INSTITUTE
1211 EAST ATWATER AVENUE

How does literature shape our perception of the past?

Pulling from recent discoveries in medicine, biology, and trauma studies, Dr. Tomasz Bilczewski will interpret developments in the Polish literary and cultural tradition in the post 1989 era.

Dr. Bilczewski is the director of the Center for Advanced Studies in the Humanities at Jagiellonian University in Kraków, and is a nationally recognized and lauded scholar in Poland. He is a visiting professor this fall at the Collins Living-Learning Center.

Join us after Dr. Bilczewski’s presentation for cookies, lemonade, and conversation with Dr. Bilczewski.
