Celebrating Wisława Szymborska

To honor the life & work of Wisława Szymborska, the Polish poet and Nobel Laureate who passed away on February 1st, the Polish Studies Center will host an open reading of her work. Come read a Szymborska poem of your choice, in any language, or just listen and enjoy. Please join us to remember the celebrated ‘poet of gentle irony.’

Begining at 8:00 p.m
Tuesday, February the 21st
Faculty Room at the University Club (Upstairs)
Indiana Memorial Union
Light Snacks & Refreshments Provided

“All is mine but nothing owned, nothing owned for memory, and mine only while I look.”
-Wisława Szymborska
