THE POLISH STUDIES CENTER PRESENTS
A Lecture by Graphic Artist and Visiting Professor
WOJCIECH TYLBOR-KUBRAKIEWICZ
"Homo Viator: Traveling as a Part of an Artist's Practice"

March 8, 2017
4:30 p.m.
Ballantine Hall 205

Wojciech Tylbor-Kubrakiewicz is a visual artist from Warsaw, Poland. He specializes in the classical techniques of intaglio, relief print, and silkscreen, but he also works with drawing and photography. He holds a doctorate from the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw and he has been an Associate Lecturer in the Faculty of Graphic Arts at the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw since 2001. Tylbor-Kubrakiewicz is currently a Visiting Professor at Indiana University.

Wojciech Tylbor-Kubrakiewicz has had sixteen solo exhibitions and more than eighty group exhibitions both in Poland and abroad. He has received many awards for his work including a distinction at the 12th Gielniak Graphic Art Competition in Poland in 2012, and a Museums and Collections Services Acquisition Award at the Edmonton Print International contest in Canada in 2008. In 2015 Wojciech Tylbor-Kubrakiewicz was awarded a Grand Prix at the 6th Splitgraphic International Graphic Art Biennial in Croatia. His works can be found in the collections of the University of Alberta, the Guanlan International Print Biennial in China, the International Graphic Triennial in Cracow, and the National Taiwan Museum of Fine Arts. www.tylbor-kubrakiewicz.com