A senior research fellow at the Institute of Contemporary History – Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic, Vit Smetana also teaches modern international history at the Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University in Prague. His books include In the Shadow of Munich. British Policy towards Czechoslovakia from the Endorsement to the Renunciation of the Munich Agreement (1938-1942) (2008) and Draze zaplacená svoboda. Osvobození Československa 1944-45 (Dearly Paid Freedom. The Liberation of Czechoslovakia 1944-45) in two volumes (2009) with co-author Jaroslav Hrbek. He also edited the Czech version of Thirteen Days, Robert F. Kennedy’s memoir of the Cuban Missile Crisis (1999).

Dr. Smetana is currently a visiting scholar at the Europe Center of Stanford University, where his research addresses Czech, Slovak and other Central European exiles in the Second World War and its aftermath.

Sponsored by the Russian and East European Institute and West European Studies Center

Persons with disabilities who wish to attend this event and would like to request assistance should contact the REEI office (812-855-7309 or reei@indiana.edu).