“Blood on the Maidan: What Happened to Ukraine’s EuroRevolution?”

REEI Panel Discussion

Tuesday, February 4, 2-3:30
Indiana Memorial Union—Stateroom East

Join a distinguished panel of IU specialists on Ukraine for a discussion of the recent protests and civil crisis in Ukraine.

Robert Kravchuk is Professor and Director, Master of Public Affairs (MPA) and Online MPA, at the School of Public and Environmental Affairs who has served as advisor to both the government of Ukraine as well as US government agencies operating in Ukraine.

Svitlana Melnyk is Lecturer in the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures. Raised and educated in Ukraine, she specializes in sociolinguistics and Russo-Ukrainian bilingualism.

Damon Smith is a dual REEI MA/MPA student who worked in Ukraine for over three years with the US Peace Corps and USAID.

Sponsored by the Russian and East European Institute

Persons with disabilities who wish to attend the lecture and would like to request assistance should contact the REEI office (812-855-7309 or reei@indiana.edu)