Samuel and Alicja Fiszman
Scholarship Competition 2016-17

The Samuel and Alicja Fiszman Scholarship is open to any undergraduate student at Indiana University Bloomington who intends to pursue study in Poland on an IU-approved, credit-bearing overseas study program in Warsaw or Kraków. In 2016-17, the scholarship award is $5,000. Applications for the Academic Year 2016-17 are due to the Polish Studies Center by May 4th. Application materials and any questions can be sent to polish@indiana.edu. Students are encouraged to apply, even if study abroad plans are not yet finalized.

Jagiellonian University, home of the Centre for European Studies, is one such study program. In addition to Polish Language, courses are oriented toward Central European history and culture, and are taught by CES faculty in English. Student typically receive 13 credits from a semester at CES. For more information, visit http://www.indiana.edu/~polishst/home/ and click on “Academic Programs.”

A complete application includes the following materials submitted to polish@indiana.edu:

- A letter of application, explaining the applicant’s interest in Polish Studies, and discussing how study abroad will contribute to the realization of the student's goals;
- An unofficial IU transcript
- A letter of recommendation from a professor familiar with the student’s work. This should be submitted separately by the professor.

REVISED DEADLINE is May 4th, 2016
