
Speakers
Kate Brown, Prof. of History, U of Maryland-Baltimore County
“Blinkered Science: The checkered history of coming to understand the Chernobyl health consequences”

Paul Josephson, Prof. of History, Colby College
“The Peaceful Atom in Russia and Ukraine Thirty Years after Chernobyl”

Sarah Phillips, Prof. of Anthropology, IUB
“The Chernobyl Disaster’s Global Cultural Fallout”

Russell Valentino, Prof. of Slavic & East European Languages & Cultures, IUB
“The Literature of Svetlana Alexeevich and the 2015 Nobel Prize”

Date & Time
Friday, April 22, 2016
9:00am—11:30am

Location
Global & International Studies Building 0001 (Auditorium)

Sponsors
Russian & East European Institute
Department of Physics
Department of Biology
Department of Anthropology
Department of Political Science