Repression & Resilience in Russia’s Public Sphere
A discussion among practitioners and scholars

Thursday
April 13, 2017
9:30am-4:30pm,
IMU Maple Room

Presentation Schedule:

9:30 am – Welcome and Introduction

10:00 – 12:00 – Session I: Media Response to Repression and Strategies of Resilience

1:00 – 2:30 – Session II: Alternative Media and Cultural Discourse

3:00 – 4:30 Session III: New Media and Political Messaging

All sessions on this day will be panel presentations of short papers.

Friday
April 14, 2017
9:15am-12:00pm,
IMU Walnut Room

Presentation Schedule:

9:15 am – Welcome and Introduction

9:30 – 10:30 – Session I: US-Russian Media Responses to Environmental Challenges

11:00 – 12:00 Session II: Maintaining Ethical Norms from Moscow to Washington

Both sessions on this day will be roundtable discussions

This event is sponsored by the Russian Studies Workshop at IU with support from the Carnegie Corporation of New York and co-sponsored by the IU Media School, the Russian and East European Institute (REEI). Special thanks to the College Arts & Humanities Institute (CAHI) for their generous support of this event.

Open to the Public
facebook.com/RSWIU
@RSW_IU