

Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor—Music History, Theory & Technology Tenure Track

The Art & Music Dept. at John Jay College, City University of NY announces a tenure-track position to begin Fall 2009. Expertise required in Music History, Theory, Technology/Production. Knowledge of American Music is also helpful. Candidate must be able to perform college service and student advising. Candidates are expected to bring enthusiasm and demonstrated commitment to teaching; and to develop and maintain an active research and publications agenda. John Jay College of Criminal Justice, an urban institution, is the largest Hispanic-serving 4-year college in the northeast U.S. Located steps from Lincoln Center at the cultural heart of NYC, the college offers BA and MA degrees and participates in the PhD programs of the Graduate School of the City University of NY. Under the leadership of its 4th president, Jeremy Travis, John Jay College is undergoing a transformation that includes unprecedented faculty hiring, new undergraduate majors & MA programs, & a new 60,000 sq. ft. building ready for occupancy in 2011. The college offers to its new faculty the unusual opportunity to shape the future of their institution. Ph.D. must be in hand by 9/1/09. Send a CV, 3 letters of reference & a letter of application with teaching philosophy to Laura Greenberg, Art & Music, John Jay College, 889 10th Avenue, rm. 325, NY, NY 10019, email: lgreenberg@jjay.cuny.edu. Candidates who wish to be interviewed at the 2008 SEC Conference should contact Professor Peter Manuel at Petermanuel3@aol.com. The City University of New York is An Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action/Immigration Reform and Control Act/Americans with Disabilities Act Employer.