The Department of Spanish & Portuguese Presents

The Spring Works-in-Progress Series in Hispanic Literatures
First Friday of the Month, 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.
Ballantine Hall 148
Coffee, tea, and cookies provided.

Feb. 1st 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.
"Dreaming of Lenguaje and Revolving Identidad: Language Selection, Memory, and Identity in Gendered Lisanophone Caribbean Literature."
Professor Jaclyn Salkauski.

Mar. 1st 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.
"Music-Making in the Fiesta: A Closer Look at Calderón's Darlo todo y no dar nada, La purpura de la rosa, and Eco y Narciso."
Ivy Howell

April 5th 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.
“Latin America between the Two World Wars: Transatlantic Scientific Circuits."
Professor Anke Birkenmaier.