Linguistics Call for Papers

Diálogos is an interdisciplinary conference that invites original graduate student research in the fields of Hispanic and Lusophone linguistics, literatures, and culture. Diálogos strives to represent the diversity of research in the field of linguistics and welcomes papers and presentations on a variety of topics including (but not limited to) linguistic variation, dialectology, language acquisition, pragmatics, semantics, phonology, syntax, bilingualism, historical and comparative linguistics, and language contact. Submissions and presentations may be in English, Spanish, Portuguese, and Catalan.

Guest Speakers

Joan Bybee
(University of New Mexico)

Erin Graff Zivin
(University of Southern California)

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Jan. 4, 2016

Please submit an anonymous 500-word abstract to gsac@indiana.edu by January 4. All personal information should be in the body of the email and should include your name, email address, institution address, telephone number (office or home), and title of your presentation. Submissions of panels of three or four presenters organized around a common theme are encouraged. Individual presentation time should not exceed twenty minutes. Please notify us if you require audiovisual equipment such as laptops, projectors, or speakers. There is a $20 registration fee payable upon acceptance of your proposal.