The Department of Spanish and Portuguese and the Medieval and Early Modern and Colonial Hispanic Studies Research Group (MEM) proudly presents

Perspectives on Early Modern Theater: A Symposium in Honor of Professor Catherine Larson’s Retirement

"Too Near the Bone: Translation, Los melindres de Belisa, and the Problem of Proximity"
Mindy Badia, IU Ph.D. 1996
Associate Professor, Indiana University Southeast

“What’s in a Name? Branding Lope de Vega”
Robert Bayliss, IU Ph.D. 2003
Associate Professor, University of Kansas

“From Page to Stage: New Observations on the Post-Tridentine Flores Sanctorum and their Impact on two Comedias de Santos”
Anthony Grubbs, IU Ph.D. 2005
Associate Professor, Michigan State University

Friday, April 17, 2015
3:30 p.m.
Persimmon Room, IMU Tree Suite

5:00-6:30pm
Please join us for a reception and toasts immediately following talks.