In conjunction with the celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, please note the following opportunities:

On Friday, September 30, there will be a public opening for the Vik Muniz art exhibit, with a lecture by Brazilian artist Vik Muniz from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in IU's Fine Arts auditorium (room 015), followed by a reception at the museum from 6:30-8:00 p.m. https://artmuseum.indiana.edu/calendar/160930-munizlecture htmlhttps://artmuseum.indiana.edu/calendar/160930-munizreception.html

Co-organized by the High Museum of Art in Atlanta and the Foundation for the Exhibition of Photography, the Vik Muniz exhibit covers more than twenty-five years of the imaginative artist's career and features over 80 photographs, including many of Muniz's most recent works. The exhibition will travel internationally following its presentation at the Eskenazi Museum of Art from October 1, 2016 through February 5, 2017.

First Thursdays at the IMU Museum of Arts Event: For October First Thursday (10/6/16 from 5-8pm), the IU Art museum will feature a Brazilian-themed evening. The museum will have just opened the Vik Muniz special exhibition. There will be interactive activities that relate to Brazilian culture or art, including a trivia on Brazilian culture. The entire museum will be open during this event, and they will also have food, beer, wine, and soft drinks for purchase. In addition, they will host a paint-with-chocolate activity, inspired by Muniz's paintings. They will also host either a photo scavenger hunt or a passport to the galleries. The event is open to the community.

We look forward to seeing you at these events!
