You are invited to the Bloomington premiere of Alejandro Springall's new film

My Mexican Shivah (Morirse está em hebreo)

Mexican producer and director Alejandro Springall will be talking about the film in a Q & A session after the viewing.

My Mexican Shivah provides a fascinating look into the life of a family in Polanco (a Jewish quarter in Mexico City) who mourns the death of a loved one. Surreal and sometimes humorous, the drama is filled with excellent performances by an ensemble cast.

Tuesday, October 7th
7:30 p.m.
Woodburn Hall 101

Presented by:
Department of Spanish and Portuguese,
The Robert A. and Sandra S. Borns Jewish Studies Program and the Institute for Jewish Culture and the Arts, Latino Studies, Department of Communication and Culture, La Casa and the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies