PORTUGUESE:

HISP-P 135  Intensive Portuguese (4 credits)   TAUGHT ONLINE

P135/491 meets online twice a week (Mondays and Thursdays from 12:00 to 1:15 PM US Eastern time). The online interactions will be done through Zoom.iu.edu. The syllabus will include information on how to login to the class meetings. The online interactions are used to review and practice the structures studied previously at home. So, before each class meeting students will view a power-point presentation on CANVAS and complete practice exercises online on the book website.

To do homework and activities "in class", students will use an electronic. Homework and assignments from the book include grammar and vocabulary exercises, laboratory (listening), and readings about Portuguese speaking countries.

Besides the book exercises, students will work on 2 individual 2-4 min video projects (a tour of your house/room; and a cooking lesson) due on weeks 3 and 6; and 2 writing activities based on questions about movies that they will watch on their own, due on weeks 5 and 7. These assignments should be uploaded on CANVAS.

There are no written exams but there will be 2 oral exams (conversation/interview format). These will be scheduled individually with the instructor during weeks 4 and 8.

Students must be available to meet during the all online interactions however, they will be allowed 2 absences that will not affect their course grade.

HISP-P 135   #13289           ARRANGED   TAUGHT ONLINE  Vania Castro

If you are not on campus and want to be able to register for online classes at IU Bloomington go to: http://online.iu.edu/classes/how-register.php

Note: Above class meets with HISP-P 491.
Note: P135/491 meets online twice a week (Mondays and Thursdays from 12:00 to 1:15 PM US Eastern time).
Note: Above class meets 2nd 8 weeks of summer, June 6 –July 28, 2017

HISP-P 491  Elementary Portuguese for Graduate Students  (3-4 credits)  TAUGHT ON LINE

P135/491 meets online twice a week (Mondays and Thursdays from 12:00 to 1:15 PM US Eastern time). The online interactions will be done through Zoom.iu.edu. The syllabus will include information on how to login to the class meetings. The online interactions are used to review and practice the structures studied previously at home. So, before each class meeting students will view a power-point presentation on CANVAS and complete practice exercises online on the book website.
To do homework and activities "in class", students will use an electronic. Homework and assignments from the book include grammar and vocabulary exercises, laboratory (listening), and readings about Portuguese speaking countries.

Besides the book exercises, students will work on 2 individual 2-4 min video projects (a tour of your house/room; and a cooking lesson) due on weeks 3 and 6; and 2 writing activities based on questions about movies that they will watch on their own, due on weeks 5 and 7. These assignments should be uploaded on CANVAS.

There are no written exams but there will be 2 oral exams (conversation/interview format). These will be scheduled individually with the instructor during weeks 4 and 8.

Students must be available to meet during all online interactions however, they will be allowed 2 absences that will not affect their course grade.

HISP-P 491 #13292 ARRANGED TAUGHT ONLINE Vania Castro

If you are not on campus and want to be able to register for online classes at IU Bloomington go to: http://online.iu.edu/classes/how-register.php

Note: Above class meets with HISP-P 135.
Note: P135/491 meets online twice a week (Mondays and Thursdays from 12:00 to 1:15 PM US Eastern time).
Note: Above class meets 2nd 8 weeks of summer, June 6 –July 28, 2017