

Department of Second Language Studies

Summer-2011

College of Arts and Sciences, Indiana University

Language Teacher Training Workshops

You are invited to participate in language teacher training workshops offered by the Department of Second Language Studies at Indiana University. These workshops are provided specifically for teachers of less commonly taught and strategic languages, but all second and foreign language teachers are welcome to participate.

Each 2-hour workshop engages participants in examining practices from the perspective of current insights from foreign and second language learning and teaching research. Each workshop includes hands-on activities and collaboration that represents and models good pedagogy for classroom language teaching. Instruction and activity will focus on the teaching of strategic and less commonly taught languages.

Current Schedule: BH 003 1:30-3:30 p.m.

July 8 Building Listening and Speaking Fluency
(Beatrix Burghardt & Tara Zahler)

July 15 Self Access Learning: Extensive Listening and Reading
(Doreen Ewert, Rebecca Mahan & Gail Pontius)

July 22 Using portfolios for outcomes-based assessment
(Doreen Ewert & Anne Marie Guerrettaz)

July 29 and 30 (TBA)

To Participate, please contact Ari Stern-Gottschalk
(aristern@indiana.edu) or Doreen Ewert (dewert@indiana.edu).

Future workshops September 6-15, 2011.

A series of workshops is being planned for the week nights between September 6 and 15., 2011. If you are interested in these or other topics

The workshops are designed and led by pedagogy experts in the Department of Second Language Studies.

Additional workshops on a variety of topics can be arranged as desired.

Contact:

Doreen Ewert
Assoc. Professor
Director, English
Language Instruction
Memorial Hall 304
1021 E. 3rd Street
Bloomington, IN
47401
812-855-2680
dewert@indiana.edu

Funding for the workshops is provided by the National Security Education Program.

Funding for food/lodging available for out-of-town workshop participants.