Dear Midsummer Theatre Student:

We are very excited that you will be attending the Midsummer Theatre Program at Indiana University in 2011. This summer we have striven to improve upon this solid and ever-evolving program. We have a talented group of faculty, staff, students, graduates and affiliates of the Indiana University Department of Theatre and Drama who are eager to work, discuss, create, and experiment in our theatre laboratories with you and your peers.

We look forward to meeting you on Sunday, June 5th, for registration and check-in, from 1 -3 p.m. in the Teter Residence Center. Since arrival is on a Sunday, it is difficult to accommodate early check-ins. Please see the enclosed information if you require an early or late check-in.

Enclosed are several documents which explain arrival procedures, a campus map, and forms that must be completed for your registration to be smooth and simple. Be certain to review all these materials carefully and fill them out completely. Go over them with your parent or guardian.

Make sure to include all the required forms when you send the remainder of your tuition, which is due by Friday May 20th.

In addition to the other forms that are due, you need to have some items prepared before you arrive.

Assignments:

- Monologue and Shakespearean Sonnet

  During the course of the Midsummer program we will have an Audition Workshop. In order to make this evening a success, you need to find and memorize two age-appropriate, contemporary, realistic monologues. Ideally, one should be serious and one comic. Each should be 2 minutes in length. They should be ready for presentation when you show up the first day.

  We’d like to see something that you’ve chosen recently and worked on yourself, so we can help you hone your instincts and skills in monologue preparation.

  We will also be working on scenes from Shakespeare so that we can help you discover the power of his language, and the humor and depth of his characters. Please choose and memorize one of Shakespeare’s Sonnets. Choose one that you find accessible. It will serve as a tool for helping you develop a basic acting approach to Shakespeare. The Sonnets are available at your library, bookstore, or online. There are 154 of them. All you need is 1.

- Personal Journal

  Find a journal of some sort to keep track of your experiences during the program. You will be absorbing a lot of new information that may not really hit you until you leave Midsummer. If you keep a journal, it will help you in the weeks after to remember what you were thinking about while you were at IU.

  A journal will also help you respond to group work in Break-Out Sessions that you will have daily with your counselors. The journal is a good thing to work on during breaks, free time and quiet study time. Remember that the journal is for you; there are no right or wrong answers, and though we may ask you to share your thoughts, you never have to let anyone else read your journal.

  To help with this personal connection, find a journal that says something to you. If a normal notebook will do for you, then use it. If you like blank paper, then use a drawing pad. If you need something colorful, with your favorite anime character emblazoned on the cover, go for that. Find something that will invite you to write and explore thoughts and feelings.

Keep in mind, that you will want a separate notebook for class notes. It probably won’t be as cool as your journal, but of course, that is completely up to you.

- Short Performance

Finally, the staff invites you to bring a short performance piece to present to your peers on our first gathering, the evening of Sunday, June 5th. The piece should be something, like your journal, that tells us who you are, what you’re interested in and what you’re capable of doing.

The format for this assignment is wide open, but here are some guidelines. Present something that lasts for two to four minutes. Feel free to act, dance, read or sing (though there will be no accompanist at this event, so you’ll be going a cappella or bring a CD). Please do not tell a joke, make a speech or involve anyone else. It is about you introducing yourself to us through the presentation of material to which you feel connected.

This piece should be about you, your talents and what you find meaningful. It should also be fun! Don’t put too much pressure on yourself. We’ll all be there to support and share with one another as we begin this great adventure.

Please note that this Short Performance is in addition to the Monologue and Sonnet requirement above.

Questions, comments, concerns, quips and queries about these assignments, or indeed anything else regarding the program, should be directed to us at: mcfadden@indiana.edu or nlipschu@indiana.edu

WE ARE ON EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

Counselors

Counselors employed by the Midsummer Theatre Program will live in the dormitory with the students. They also supervise dorm activities, answer questions, and provide help to participants as needed.

One counselor will be responsible for the administration of medicine and serve as a first contact for student concerns in the dormitory.
Dormitories

Each air-conditioned dormitory room is double occupancy. Male and female students will be separately housed in the dormitory.

One twin bed with mattress pad is provided for each student. Each room is furnished with a desk, dresser, and a closet. Coin-operated laundry facilities and vending machines are available in the dormitory.

Keep in mind several important pieces of information. If you lose your key, it will cost $50.00 to replace. We will provide lanyards to help you keep your key and meal card on you at all times. If you forget your linens, the center desk can make them available to you at a rate of $2.00 per day, which will add up to $28.00 by the end of the program.

Photograph

If you have not already done so, please send us a photograph of yourself, so we can put a face with your name before you arrive. This can either be a formal photograph or a snapshot. We will have a display set up at registration so we all can identify one another. If you have a digital photograph, you may send it as a jpg file with the subject line, “Midsummer Student Photo” to mcfadden@indiana.edu. Please make sure you provide identification with the picture to ensure that we display the correct photo.

What to Pack:

Clothing

We welcome the personal style of all Midsummer participants. Please keep in mind that many classes involve movement and hands-on projects. We recommend that you pack the following types of garments:

Ø Loose-fitting, comfortable clothing for acting, movement, and voice classes
Ø Clothing suitable for field trips and performances (casual, but no jeans or t-shirts)
Ø Black pants and dark shoes for the final presentation
Ø Dance shoes if you have them, clean athletic shoes if you do not, or something else to move in

You also need to bring:

Ø Pajamas/Robe
Ø Closet hangers
Ø Sheets (extra long twin, or two standard twin flat sheets)
Ø Blanket
Ø Pillow(s)
Ø Towels
Ø Alarm clock
Ø Landline telephone (optional; for in-room use only) Local calls are included.
Ø Shampoo and soap
Ø Flip-flops to use as shower shoes (optional)
Ø A small package of laundry detergent
Ø Umbrella
Ø Sunscreen
Ø Notebook (for journal writing)
Ø Notebook (for class notes)
Ø Pens and pencils
Ø Nalgene Bottle or other water bottle
Ø Money: Students will need cash only for laundry expenses, snacks, and incidentals.

Students are NOT encouraged to bring large amounts of money to campus.

Generally, out-of-town checks will not be accepted by local merchants, and students may have difficulty cashing personal checks. We suggest the use of traveler’s checks or debit/credit cards. In addition, you may want a little mad money. We will try to make time for other stops like the IU Bookstore on campus.

The time that you are not in class should be spent socializing with new friends, rehearsing, reading class assignments, and practicing the skills you are learning. In order to create and maintain a creative and safe theatrical community, students should NOT bring:

Ø Pets
Ø Cars (If you are driving yourself to the program, please contact us the week of May 30th for parking details. More comment below.)
Ø Televisions
Ø Microwaves
Ø Refrigerators
Ø Candles
Ø Tobacco products (No smoking or other tobacco use is permitted during MIDSUMMER.)

General Policies

Policies and procedures for the Midsummer Theatre Program are established by the Chairperson of the Department of Theatre and Drama and the Program Director of the Midsummer Theatre Program. Indiana University is operated by the State of Indiana and is subject to all laws, statutes, and procedures of the state.

Disciplinary action, if necessary, will be taken by the Midsummer Program and Program Director in case of non-compliance with the program or dormitory rules and regulations.

The enclosed Conduct Agreement Form, which states the rules and regulations of the Program, must be signed and submitted by each student and a parent or guardian.

Health Form

The attached health form must be completed, signed, and mailed with your registration materials and payment of fees. Students must submit their Social Security number on the health form for their registration to be complete. You will need to download the attached medical form from this e-mail. Please print it, complete it, and sign it. We must have a signed original for our files.
Hours

Midsummer students will be expected to be on their assigned floor in Teter by 10:30 p.m. each night. Curfew extensions are granted only for group field trips and by special arrangement with the counselors as approved by the Program Director.

Breakfast begins at 7:45 a.m., and classes begin at 9:00 a.m. sharp.

Mail

All mail to Midsummer students should be addressed as follows:

(NAME)
Midsummer Theatre Program
501 North Sunrise Drive

*Individual room numbers will be available at registration.

It is very important to include the Midsummer Theatre Program in your address. The residence hall staff will not know how to direct it otherwise.

Contact During the Program

All meals will be served at the Wright Quad Food Court (a five-minute walk from the Lee Norvelle Theatre and Drama Center and Teter Residence Center). Please note that lost meal cards cost $10 to replace.

Cars

Students should leave their cars at home. The locations of the Midsummer Theatre Program are within easy walking distance of each other, and we will provide transportation to special events. Many local amenities are also within easy walking distance.

Students who must drive to Bloomington alone must store their cars at an Indiana University parking lot for the duration of the program and must leave their keys with the counselors. Indiana University charges a parking fee for such accommodation. While there is an option to park by the IU Stadium for free, you are better off not bringing a vehicle. Students should not bring and store cars unless absolutely necessary. IU is not responsible for the safety of cars stored at any university parking lot. Students are not permitted to operate any motor vehicle while attending the Midsummer Theatre Program. Let us know by May 30th if you are considering this option.

Daily Schedule (Example of a Typical Day)

Please note that the day begins early in the morning with activities planned for virtually the entire day and evening. Students should be prepared for a vigorous and active experience.

A sample schedule of a typical day follows. Please note that a detailed schedule of each day will be provided at check-in. Some classes may shift times.
