Student Group Services

The Student Activities Office supports the community of 450+ student orgs at Indiana University Bloomington. In response to the Tsunami Relief Effort, all thirteen categories of student organizations have gathered to bring a united education and voice to their fundraising efforts. The student groups have already been meeting, planning and developing a vision of events to be held throughout the upcoming year. A list of all student group events can be found at <http://www.indiana.edu/~tsunami>
