From Your President

Fellow University Club Members

September will be filled with EXCITEMENT at the University Club including the launch of:

Happy-nings

A Happy-ning will occur each Thursday from 4-7 in the Faculty Room of the University Club.

Details of the kick-off of this initiative are included in this newsletter.

Why is the University Club offering Happy-nings?

- ❖ Refresh IU faculty and staff recognition that the UClub is an organization worth joining; it is more than a great place to meet,
- ❖ Fulfill Herman Wells’ objective that the UClub bring town and gown together for friends, fellowship, and fun,
- ❖ Build on the 2008-09 social hours success as an occasion of member social interaction,
- ❖ Broaden the club’s exposure, and
- ❖ Provide a special attraction to member prospects.

I look forward to joining you at “happy-nings” and the many other exciting University Club offerings.

Ronald Kovener

President of the University Club

PLEASE contact me by email at RRkovener@aol.com or by phone at 337-8920 if you have concerns, suggestions or ideas for the board to discuss or consider. Member input is important.

When he was a student at Indiana University, he worked as a houseboy for Wells at the chancellor's residence on Tenth Street. At the present time Dr. Capshew, an associate professor in the Department of History and Philosophy of Science, is researching and writing a book on the life and times of Wells. Capshew will speak on highlights of Wells' career, including some little-known facets of his life, to make this a talk you won't want to miss. James Capshew received his BA in Psychology from IU. He earned his MA and PhD from the University of Pennsylvania. He serves as editor of the "History of Psychology," a research magazine. GREAT DECISIONS

Great Decisions is the nation's oldest, most popular program of citizen education in world affairs. The common purpose is to help members become informed, involved, and to understand how world events affect their daily lives. This University Women's Club is conducted in cooperation with the Foreign Policy Association, IU's Center for the Study of Global Change. Meetings will be held in the Terrace Room at Meadowood at 1:15 p.m. 2009-10 will be a transitional year: The FPA designs Great Decisions programs for the calendar year. However, we have been using the academic year and by the time we finish in May, the materials are over 18 months old. We have decided to 'catch up.' This fall there will be 2 meetings a month for the 2009 series on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays. The topics to be discussed are on the web site or will be sent by a chair if requested. September meetings will be:

9/08/09 Global food supply

Global prices for food staples have risen dramatically, resulting in protests and unrest around the world. What factors are driving prices up, and can they be tamed? What will the political fallout be for governments that fail to act, and what role can global institutions play?

9/22/09 Cuba On The Verge

Since Fidel Castro handed over the presidency of Cuba to his brother, Raúl in early 2008, signs of greater economic openness have led to much speculation. Will Raúl seek to reopen ties with the U.S.? What role will Cuba's American exiles play in shaping a post-Castro Cuba?

Starting in January with the 2010 series, we will return to 1 meeting per month on the 2nd Tuesday. This will necessitate purchasing the 2010 booklet then. The bonus is we will be up-to-date and timely! The first meeting (9/08/09) will be held before the Fall Sign-up (9/10/09). Those interested in purchasing a booklet before then should contact Donna

Co-Chairs:

Donna Smith (331-0311), vhsmith@indiana.edu
