Have You Paid Your Dues?

If so, skip this paragraph. If not, you will want to pay your dues this month before your membership expires. The annual dues are $45 for a single and $65 for a joint membership. Just a reminder, you must pay your dues for five consecutive years before your retirement from IU to qualify for a free life membership. If one is not a club member, one may attend any event but pay a non-member charge for each event.

University Women's Club Board Meeting will be Thursday, November 4,
10:00 a.m. at Pat Englander's home, 3508 William Ct. (Hyde Park), 336-2746.
Co-hostess is Judy Granbois.

Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra's Yuletide Celebration

Saturday, December 4

Here is a terrific gift for a child, grandchild or a friend. On Saturday, December 4, travel on a Star of Indiana motorcoach to Indianapolis and begin your afternoon with a delicious lunch at the Agio Restaurant. The menu will include: Agio caesar salad with garlic croutons and parmesan cheese, bowtie pasta, grilled chicken, spinach, mushroom, chipotle butter and classic cheesecake for dessert. Beverages are limited to water and coffee. Children's lunch is spaghetti with marinara sauce.

After lunch, we board the bus for a jaunt to Circle Theatre where you and your family* will be treated to a festive holiday presentation with singers, dancers, musicians, beautiful costumes and sets all created by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

Cost for this holiday extravaganza including meal, show tickets, driver's tip and transportation is $69 per adult for University Club members, $75 per adult for non-members. The price for children is $55.

Deadline for reservations is November 15 for University Club members. After November 15, reservations will be opened to community members and guests.

Children are invited to attend this function with their parents and/or grandparents. Very young children may find this event too tiring. Most of the day entails travel, dining and the program. Children under four are not permitted to attend by the Concert Hall rules.*

Departure at 10:30 a.m. from Parking Lot #4 at IU Memorial Stadium.

Lunch at 12:15 p.m.

Concert at 2:00 p.m.

Call the Club at 855-1325 or e-mail uclub@indiana.edu or use the on-line reservation form on the Web site for your reservation.

University Club Holiday Gala

Thursday, December 16, Terry's Banquet Center

The University Club Board of Directors presents our Holiday Gala at Terry's Banquet Center. This is a grand way to share the University Festivities with friends. Guests are welcome!

Enjoy a glass of wine during the cocktail hour from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7:00 p.m. This elegant dinner includes holiday musical entertainment by the award Winning Show Choir "Sounds of South" from Bloomington High School South.

This annual event is always popular and you don't want to miss it! Menus and cost will be announced in our next Newsletter.

Hosted by Doris Brineman and the University Club Board of Directors.

Trip to Chicago

November 18-19, Thursday and Friday

Itinerary

Thursday, November 18

7:45 a.m. Meet your friends and your Grueninger Tours travel director at Lot #4 to begin your exciting trip to Chicago! Coffee and treats are available upon boarding. Don't forget to pick up an orange parking card for your windshield.

8:00 a.m. Depart Bloomington via deluxe Star of Indiana motorcoach. Have a short restroom stop enroute. See the skyline of Chicago with the Sears Tower. Move your watches back one hour.

12:30 p.m. (Approximately) Arrive at your conveniently located 4-star hotel located on Wacker Drive near Michigan Avenue, south of the Chicago River. HOTEL 71, 71 East Wacker Drive, (312) 346-7100.

Enjoy your free afternoon of Christmas shopping and museum visiting. Check out The Chicago Attraction Guide for many things to see and do in Chicago.

Dinner is on your own. The Chicago Dining Guide may give you some ideas about where you may want to dine.

6:45 p.m. (Sharp) Depart the hotel for an enjoyable evening at the beautiful Auditorium Theatre of Roosevelt University for a showing of Evita.

Winner of seven Tony Awards, Evita brings to life the dynamic, larger-than-life persona of Eva Peron, wife of former Argentine dictator Juan Peron. One of the most popular collaborations between composer Andrew Lloyd Webber and lyricist Tim Rice, this legendary musical features a memorable score including the internationally acclaimed hit "Don't Cry For Me Argentina."

Friday, November 19

A day for individual pursuits. If you aren't a Christmas shopper, Jacqueline Kennedy: "The White House Years" which displays more than 70 garments worn by the former first lady, opens November 13th at The Field Museum. Weather permitting, we will be near enough to walk and visit the beautiful new Millennium Park.

By 11:30 a.m. Take your luggage to the hotel lobby. Your luggage will be stored until departure.

3:30 p.m. Meet at the hotel for bus departure. Depart for Bloomington, Indiana with a fast food stop enroute home. Move watches forward one hour.

9:00 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. Arrive in Bloomington.

Double room (two people in one room) is $325 per person or $650; a single room is $400 and triple room (three people in one room) is $300 per person or $900.

Reservations are made by mailing in the reservation portion of the flyer you should have already received in the mail. Please mail to: Grueninger Tours, 8580 Cedar Place Dr., Suite 116, Indianapolis, IN 46240. Phone: 800-844-4159

Deadline for reservations and full payment are due by October 1, 2004. Any reservations after that date are subject to availability.

Hosts: Fran and Sam Bell, Maggie Linnemeier, Michele and Jim Stark.

University Women's Club

Thursday, November 11

1 p.m. in the University Club's Presidents' Room

This is our first program of the fall season in the University Clubrooms. Judge Viola Jones Taliaferro will speak on "My Experiences as a Monroe County Circuit Court Judge."

Virginia native, Viola J. Taliaferro, graduated from high school at age 14, received her BS from Virginia State College in 1947 and then made her way to Morgan State College for an advanced studies degree. In 1969, she received her master of liberal arts from Johns Hopkins University.

Taliaferro worked several years in the fields of social work and education. She began teaching in the Baltimore public school system in 1965. She remained with the Baltimore school system as both a teacher and department head until 1972, when she, her husband, former National Football League player George Taliaferro and their four daughters left Baltimore for Bloomington, Indiana.

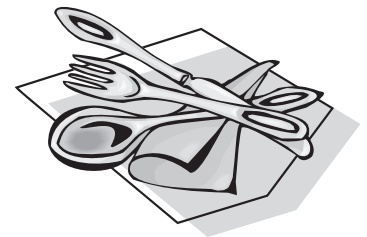

Following graduation from Law School in 1977, Taliaferro went into private practice in the areas of divorce, family, and criminal law. In 1989, Taliaferro was named Monroe Circuit Court magistrate. She was appointed judge of Monroe Circuit Court VII in 1995 by then-Governor Evan Bayh and continues to serve the community in this position today.

Judge Taliaferro's name is synonymous with her jurisprudence involving children's rights. She is recognized as a leading contributor to the law dealing with children. Judge Taliaferro once said, "I was not shaped by the world in which I lived; I was shaped by the attitudes and beliefs of my mother and father" a philosophy that continues to shape the way in which she works. As one nominator said "For many years, she has been a voice championing reform and common sense in an arena faced with increasing challenges."

The Eleanor Long luncheon will be held at 11:45 a.m. in the Faculty Room. Reservations are required. Deadline for reservations is Tuesday, November 9, 12 noon. Cost is $9.50 for members, $10.50 for guests. Two hours of free parking is available for members and their guests attending the Eleanor Long Luncheon.

The menu will include:

Chicken Teriyaki with Grilled Pineapple
 Ambrosia Fruit Salad
 Seasoned Rice
 Vegetable Medley
 Banana-Pineapple Quick Breads and Butter
 Coffee, Decaf, Iced Tea
 Fruit Pie

Social Co-Hostesses: Janie Harnett and Carol Haywood.

Committee: Jane Bloom, Pat Buffie, Ida Medlyn and Judy O'Callaghan.

Greeting Committee: Marsha Frisbie, Maribeth McKaig and Karen Mikesell.

Andrews will be speaking on "Women in Academe: What I Learned as a Woman Administrator."

The following is an article about Moya Andrews from her recent visit to Central Queensland University, Australia.

"Leading American academic visits CQU Rockhampton Leading American academic Professor Moya Andrews has visited CQU Rockhampton to meet staff and students.

Until her recent retirement, Andrews was Professor of Speech and Hearing Sciences and Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Dean of the Faculties at Indiana University Bloomington.

The visitor delivered a Teaching and Learning lunchtime seminar on the subject of 'Women in Higher Education in the US – Achieving the Balance.' She will return to CQU Rockhampton in late September (Sept 28-30).

Professor Andrews is a certified, licensed speech-language-pathologist and a Fellow of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and of the Society of Ear, Nose and Throat Advances in Children. She has worked in schools, clinics and hospitals in Australia, Great Britain, and the United States.

Her publications include numerous research journal articles, therapy protocols and the 'Manual of Voice Treatment: Pediatrics through Geriatrics' published by Singular-Thompson Learning.

Professor Andrews serves on the editorial board of the Journal of Voice. She has received the Outstanding Clinician Award from the Indiana Speech-Language-Hearing Association and the 1999 Distinguished Scholar Award from Indiana University's Office of Women's Affairs in Bloomington. She is a Fellow of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and in 2001 received its highest accolade of Honors."

The menu will include:

INTEREST GROUPS

2004-2005

The University Women's Club is delighted to welcome members of the University Club to a wide variety of interest groups. These groups help form the foundation for friendships and learning that create enriching experiences.

All members in good standing of the University Club are eligible to participate in as many interest groups as they wish. Members may sign up by contacting the chair of the individual interest group.

We welcome suggestions for new interest groups.

Judith Granbois, Interest Group Chair, 332-5781, jgranboi@indiana.edu

ANTIQUES:

Co-chairs: Joanne Lovell, 332-7585
Elizabeth Gallman, 336-1961

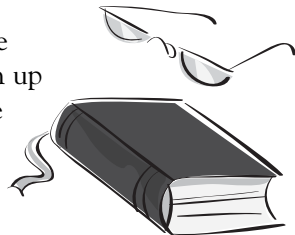

No meeting in November

December 2, 2004 Holiday Shopping in Nashville
1:30 p.m.: Leave K-Mart East for Nashville
We will car-pool to Nashville to visit the many antique shops in this lovely town. Get in the holiday spirit by shopping together for stocking stuffers and local goodies. We will meet for a snack at "Hob Nob Corner," the ice cream parlor that has been maintained with its original soda fountain. We will begin the car-pool by meeting in the K-Mart East parking lot. Please arrive at 1:15 p.m. so we can leave promptly at 1:30 p.m.

BOOK CIRCULATING:

Co-chairs: Lou Moir, 332-0472
Roberta Mueller, 339-7621
Anne Wilson, 334-4046

Are you an avid reader with no time for monthly meetings or reviews? This group is for you! Books are circulated every two weeks; the final book you receive is yours to keep. The reading list includes both fiction and nonfiction. A reasonable fee is charged to cover the cost of the books. To join, you MUST sign up and pay the fee before or at the September luncheon.

BOOK DISCUSSION:

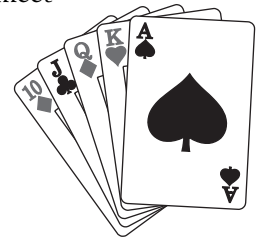

Co-chairs: Pat Harris, 330-0415
Anne Wilson, 334-4046

GOURMET:

Co-chairs: Linda McNabb, 333-2409
 Marty Schick, 331-7794

This group is made to order for those who enjoy preparing and partaking of fine gourmet cuisine with a touch of fun and conversation. In the fall and spring, the entire group attends a cocktail party/dinner; during the year groups of four or five couples meet in members' homes with everyone sharing in the preparation and cost of the meal.

GREAT DECISIONS:

Chair: Donna Smith, 331-0311

Great Decisions is the nation's oldest and most popular program of citizen education in world affairs. The common purpose is to help members become informed, involved and to understand how world events affect their daily lives. The Great Decisions group meets in the Terrace Room at Meadowood at 1:15 p.m. on the second Tuesday of the month. Copies of the Great Decisions 2004 briefing book may be purchased for a nominal cost.

The Tuesday, November 9 the program is "Diverse Islam."

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP:

Co-chairs: Kate Kroll, 332-4018
 Joann Arthur, 336-3422

Come be part of this group and enjoy conversation with an interesting international student. Culture, customs and interests can be shared through friendly conversation. Luncheons (Dutch treat) are planned for Chapman's Jordan Room on the third Fridays in October, November, January and February.

On Friday, November 19, 12:00 noon, our guest will be an international student from Finland.

LUNCHETTES:

Co-Chairs: Sandy Pile, 323-2976
 Shirley Pugh, 336-6560

On the fourth Friday of the month, join this group for restaurant exploration. Detailed information concerning the restaurant location and deadlines for reservations will be stated in the monthly newsletter and on our web site.
