Dear fellow inmates,

Yup, it’s August and all the Augustinian things that go with it. School starts, (just seems so early anymore) lots of fairs, and of course IU football… which should be a promising year.

The UClub is gearing up for its annual forays of good times for all. Let ’em roll. Speaking of which a tip of the ole UClub hat to Lu Cregar, Cyril Siewert, Marilyn Brinley, Susan Platter, and with any luck at all, Barb Aspy as these folks are chairing the program events.

A special BIG DOF to Kate Kroll and selection committee for bringing in Joe & Ruth Miller as our new Co-Vice President’s. More new stuff will be coming along, so stay tuned. As you have all probably heard; the CHICKEN held a news conference, where he finally broke his silence, and stated firmly… I crossed the road so the stupid opossum could see that it can be done!

And Kate will be putting up with us when she hosts THE new years eve party.

Tah, Tah,

G. Don
August's birth flower is gladiolus, or 'sword lily.' Gladiolus represents remembrance, calm, integrity, and infatuation. With gladiolus, the recipient's heart is being "pierced with love." The other August flower is the poppy. A red poppy signifies pleasure, a white poppy is given for consolation, and a yellow poppy wishes wealth and success. Glads, as they are often called, are native to tropical and South Africa and are any plant of the genus Gladiolus. The plant has sword-shaped leaves with one-sided spikes of funnel-shaped, bright flowers. “Love At First Sight” is the meaning of this flower when offered as a gift.

Peridot is the birthstone for August. It is said to host magical powers and healing properties to protect against nightmares and to bring the wearer power, influence, and a wonderful year. As peridot is a gemstone that forms deep inside the Earth and brought to the surface by volcanoes, in Hawaii, peridot symbolizes the tears of Pele, the goddess of fire and volcanoes. Today, most of the peridot supply comes from Arizona; other sources are China, Myanmar, and Pakistan. This gemstone comes in several color variations ranging from yellowish green to brown, but most consumers are attracted to the bright lime greens and olive greens.
WE HAVE A WINNER!

CONGRATULATIONS to contest winner Jennifer Hubacher, Director of Public Relations, at Garden Villa Health!

It was a hot summer night. Carolyn Anderson, Suzanne Roberts, Mary Emison and Deb Cordrey, were right there in the thick of it at the Monroe County Airport for the Second Annual Chamber of Commerce “Trade Show in a Briefcase” event! The show featured numerous Bloomington business’s, groups and associations all peddling their goods and working the crowd of over 500. There was a hot air balloon and a BBQ cook-off contest between the areas best smokers, as well as some splendid “adult beverages!”

The University Club booth received over 100 entries in their contest to win a 3-hour rental of the Presidents’ Room. Jennifer Hubacher was the lucky winner! These Chamber of Commerce events are a terrific way to get out there and let people know about our wonderful Club.

Chad Rabinovitz is the only artist in the United States simultaneously serving as the Producing Artistic Director of two theaters devoted to new and contemporary works: Adirondack Theatre Festival (Glens Falls, NY) & Bloomington Playwrights Project (Bloomington, IN). Chad has directed more than 100 productions across the country, focusing primarily on new and contemporary plays. The Bloomington Playwrights Project (BPP) is the only professional theatre in the entire state of Indiana dedicated solely to new plays. In operation for 35 years, we serve both the Bloomington and national theatre community by working with talented playwrights, actors, and artists to develop high-level productions for our local patrons as well as the many audiences attending subsequent productions of scripts that originated here at the BPP. We are an advocate for playwrights and new plays and believe firmly that they are not only important but absolutely vital to the future of our art form.

You’re Invited to the University Club’s Annual Welcome Reception!

Come meet and mingle with our honored guest, new IMU Director, Hank Walter!

Tuesday, September 8th - 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM — In the Presidents’ Room at the University Club

The University Club is delighted to have the new IMU Director, Hank Walter, as our keynote speaker this year. Hank has deep roots in Bloomington and IU through his family. His late father-in-law, Dick Rubin, was one of the original faculty members at SPEA where he worked for 33 years. His wife, Elizabeth, grew up in Bloomington, and has two degrees from IU. His mother-in-law also received her master’s degree from IU and worked for the IU Foundation before taking a job at the Monroe County Public Library.

“We’ve been to Bloomington twice a year for a number of years now,” Walter said. “I really feel connected to IU through my family.”

Hank has leadership experience at two Big Ten Universities. He spend 12 years as associate director for programs at the University of Illinois’ union and has served as chief operating officer of the University of Wisconsin’s union since 2005. “The IMU is an icon in the college union profession,” he said. “It is one of those special places that other unions have benchmarked themselves against. It’s got a national and international reputation. It’s an honor to be a part of that.” We think this is a special place too! Thanks Hank!

The University Club wishes to thank the management and staff of MEADOWOOD for their continued support.
The 24th Head Baseball Coach, Chris Lemonis, is our honored guest speaker at the first “Speaker Series Luncheon” this season. Chris will be looking back at the 2015 season and giving us a sneak peak of what he has in store for 2016.

Chris expressed what this job means to him. “Believe me, it’s kind of a dream job,” Lemonis said. “Just to have the beautiful stadium and the beautiful campus, and how they’ve had success. There’s a lot of good things here.” Coaching at IU not only put Lemonis in charge of one of the best teams in the country the past two seasons but also provides his family a home in a town far different than Louisville. Lemonis said the small town, family feel, of Bloomington suits his family better than the urban layout of Louisville. “I don’t know if there’s a better city in the country than Bloomington.” Obviously Coach Lemonis is really excited to be here! And we’re excited to meet him!

The Luncheon Club is VERY PROUD to present...

The University Club of Indiana University was formed in 1912 to be a central focus for interchange and understanding among faculty, staff, alumni, their spouses, IU Retirees, and members of the community. That same year, New Mexico became the 47th state; the oversea railroad first arrived in Key West; Tokyo gave 3000 cherry trees to Washington D.C. to symbolize friendship; the Carpathia arrived in New York harbor with 708 survivors from the RMS Titanic; Harriet Quimby became the first woman to fly across the English Channel; Woodrow Wilson became President; and Tarzan the Ape Man first appeared in an Edgar Rice Burroughs’ novel.

The spirit of those early days lives on through the vitality and energy of our 642 current members. Members provide the ideas and talent that make up the quality and depth of our programs and special events. Whether your reason for being a member is making connections, utilizing the club facilities or the programming, one thing is still the same today as it was 103 years ago... Members make the difference and are the driving force of our continued growth. That makes membership in the University Club a timeless investment for the future.

It’s time for our Regular Members (not Life Members) to renew for the 2015—2016 year. Please complete and mail the form on the next page. Regular Memberships are due NOW PLEASE! Thank you!

(Life and Meadowood Membership renewals will go out later in the summer and will be due by September 15th.)

MEADOWOOD OUTINGS

Many Meadowood outings sell out very quickly. Please call 812-855-1325 today to secure a reservation.

All depart from the Meadowood Circle Drive, 2455 Tamarack Trail.

Columbus Architectural Tour
Wednesday, August 12, Departs 8:30 AM

This guided bus tour shows many of the more than 70 notable buildings and public art installations created by the likes of Eero Saarinen, Harry Weese, Kevin Roche, I.M. Pei, Henry Moore, and Dale Chihuly. Discover how a city of 45,000 became the home to so much world-class architecture and public art. Find out why the American Institute of Architects ranked Columbus sixth in the nation for innovation and design, right up there with San Francisco and Boston. Discover why National Geographic Traveler put Columbus at the very top of its list of United States historic destinations. After lunch at Joe Willie’s Burger Bar, we will visit Cummins Corporate Headquarters Museum, The Commons, and the Bartholomew County Memorial for Veterans. Before we leave town, we will stop for an ice cream treat at Zaharakos, the elegantly-restored 1900-style ice cream parlor and museum named "The Number One Thing Every Hoosier Must Do" by Indianapolis Monthly magazine. Price of $40 includes tours and refreshments on the bus; lunch and ice cream is charged back.

Mystery Trip
Wednesday, August 26, Departs 7:30 AM

Meadowood mystery trips are very popular and nearly always filled to capacity. The destination is disclosed only when we arrive at the first stop – or when someone makes a correct guess upon receipt of clues along the way! At the moment, the price is also a mystery, but sign up anyway – it is fair to say you don’t want to miss this!

Dunes, Dome & Dessert Overnight
September 23-24

We will start the day near Chesterton at Dunes Nature Preserve located in Indiana Dunes State Park. Take a guided tour through the preserve and learn how dunes are formed and what makes this landscape so unique to Indiana. Enjoy the beauty and splendor of the International Friendship Gardens. Begun in 1934 at the Chicago World’s Fair, this collection of flora is representative of gardens from around the world. Day two will find us in South Bend at the University of Notre Dame, home of the world famous Fighting Irish. Tour offers a historical overview of campus life and includes highlights such as Basilica of the Sacred Heart, the “Golden Dome,” and “Touchdown Jesus”. We will visit the South Bend Chocolate Company Factory and Museum. Take the “Inside Scoop” tour of the museum and see one of the world’s largest chocolate collections. You’ll also get a taste or two! Enjoy lunch at Tippecanoe Place. Originally, the Studebaker family mansion, this historic home now offers a fine dining experience. A truly South Bend landmark! Additional tours & meals; full itinerary and price available soon.
