Dear Members,

Welcome to February! The month of sweethearts and a tribute to our Presidents. Winter is almost over and spring will be here before you know it. Let’s hope that Punxsutawney Phil has a good prediction for us.

January at the UClub began with Perry Metz, executive director of WTIU Public Television and WFIU Public Radio. Perry gave us an insider’s look at the world of public television and radio. He predicted that perhaps the future will include a "voice activated" device on the wall of your house that will control all your electronic devices. Perry shared that 10 million tuned in for the season premiere of Masterpiece classic "Downton Abbey" and assured us the series will continue. He also talked about the who, what, and how, of modern TV and Radio, then graciously answered questions from the audience.

Dr. James Madison, a favorite speaker of all, is sure to engage us with his history of Indiana including information that many of us either have not heard before or had long forgotten. The UWC brings this excellent program to you on February 12th in the Presidents’ Room at the UClub. Sign up now as registration closes soon.

Professor Richard Rose will entertain us with his fascinating talk on "What research with twins tells us about ourselves". You don’t need to be a twin to enjoy this fascinating talk. Sign up now for this one, too!

Always wanted to try "Line Dancing"? Here’s your chance to have fun and get some exercise! Join the party on Saturday, February 21st at 7 PM in the Presidents’ Room at the UClub. Taking reservations now!

A special thanks to Linda Gregory and Linda Burton of the Antiques Group for organizing the incredible overnight trip to Cincinnati on April 23-24. This trip is open to all. Make your reservation today.

The University Club had a booth at the Bloomington Bridal Show on January 18th and interest in our fabulous club was high! Check out the February/March issue of Bloom Magazine to see our advertisement.

The Bloomington Bridal Show
January 18th

The Bloomington Bridal Show is held every January at the Bloomington Convention Center. There were over 60 of the area’s finest wedding professionals on hand to help guests with wedding day plans including the University Club!

Everything from banquet halls to photographers, caterers, formal-wear companies, and DJ’s were represented at the show. There was even a musician who would write a personal song for the bride and groom, and an artist drawing caricatures of engaged couples!

This year there were over 550 Attendees! Of those, 240 were ‘brides to be’ who had pre-registered for the show and had the opportunity to win free giveaways and discounts throughout the day.

The Bridal Show is a great way for the Club to showcase our beautiful rooms, and get the word out that the University Club is a very special place with affordable banquet and meeting space. The Presidents’ Room and Faculty Room are perfect for smaller weddings, receptions, bridal showers, bachelor parties, rehearsal dinners, and Sunday brunches after the big day!

Remember the University Club when friends and family make wedding plans, and be sure to take advantage of the room rental discounts you receive through your Club membership.

The University Club is a member of the Bloomington Wedding Planners Gathering. This group of wedding professionals meet monthly for business networking and referral opportunities.
February's birth flower is the violet, which signifies watchfulness, loyalty, and faithfulness. Give a violet to someone to let them know you'll always be there for them.

The other February flower is the primrose, which lets someone know you can't live without them.

What Research with Twins tells us about Ourselves

Dick Rose describes himself as in “nominal retirement” from the IU Department of Psychology and Brain Science. But he continues his work in psychology where he concentrates on the curious patterns of similarity, other than the physical, obviously, which arise in twins.

When he isn’t pursuing his NIH-funded research on that subject, he can be found serving on the Boards of the Interfaith Winter Shelter and the Shalom Community Center, or in the choir stalls of the First United Methodist Church.

An admirer of T.C. Steele? Aware of his great presence on IU’s Campus?

A few facts:

Theodore Clement Steele is perhaps the most famous of the “Hoosier Group” of American Impressionist painters.

He was born in Gasport, Indiana in 1847 and began his painting at 5 years of age. By age 13 he was teaching other children how to draw.

By the 1890s, Steele had become a nationally recognized painter,

After his wife Mary’s death in 1885, he decided to focus on painting landscapes.

Steele purchased 200 heavily wooded acres in Brown County, and settled into “The House of the Singing Winds” to paint the hilly landscapes of this rural area near Bloomington.

In 1916 Steele and his wife Selma built a studio which at the time was considered the largest in the state.

T.C. Steele died in July, 1926 at the age of 79.

The property was a gift of Selma Steele to the Department of Conservation in 1945, under the condition that the property be preserved as a memorial. In Mrs. Steele’s own words, “I trust that the whole surrounding forest will be preserved…”

Rachel Perry, former fine arts curator of the Indiana State Museum, is a leading author on Indiana art and has published five books about Indiana artists, past and present. We are pleased to have her with us to speak of Selma Steele, the wife of T. C. Steele, a trained artist who approached her gardens from a painter’s point of view, and whose gardens were showcased in many of T.C.’s paintings. It was thanks to Selma that the “House of Singing Winds” has been preserved as part of the T.C. Steele State Historic Site. We look forward to learning more about her.

SPRING - LOW GAP - SATURDAY, APRIL 18TH

In the 1991 edition of Nature Walks in Southern Indiana, Alan McPherson describes Low Gap Trail as a "rigorous day hike." When we did it in 2014 it was a workout. While much of the trail is on old roadbeds, expect to see spring wildflowers, particularly in the rock shelter area. They will distract from the ups and downs, and aching muscles. For those wanting to stretch themselves, while exploring the backcountry.

Leave Time: 7:30 a.m. Carpool from 1505 E. Richland Drive to Morgan Monroe State Forest.
Distance: 10.7 miles. Estimated hiking time: 5 1/2 - 6 1/2 hours. Difficulty: Strenuous

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

If hiking off the usual path interests you, join Eleanor Lahr and others as they check out hikes in Alan McPherson's Nature Walks in Southern Indiana and other interesting places. Group size is limited to ten or less, depending on trail and transportation restrictions. The schedule is subject to change. Impromptu hikes sent out via email. Walks go rain or shine.

Dress for the weather, and bring water and a snack. Hikes vary in length And difficulty.

For more information and to reserve a spot, call Chair: Eleanor Lahr 812-339-4209, elahr@indiana.edu

YOGA

You need not feel intimidated by yoga! If you are interested in improving balance, breathing, flexibility, and relaxation, this is the group for you. No previous knowledge of yoga is necessary. Everyone works at their own level.

Our group meets throughout the year each Tuesday from 10 — 11 am at St. Thomas Lutheran Church in Heritage Hall which promotes a relaxed and spiritual environment for practicing yoga. St. Thomas Lutheran is located at the intersection of Smith Road and E. 3rd Street. Parking is plentiful.

Wear comfortable clothes to permit easy movement; bring a yoga mat and a stretchy band or belt. Our instructors strive to leave you feeling stretched, relaxed and in a better place than when you came through the door.

You may join us three times before membership in the University Club is required for participation. There is no additional cost beyond your University Club membership, but we do ask that you give a minimum $20 annual donation to St. Thomas Lutheran Church for the use of their lovely facility.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Marilyn, Svelta, or Wendy.

Swope Art Museum
Thursday, March 12, Departs 8:15 AM to Terre Haute
Recently named “One of the 10 best places to see art in smaller cities” by USA Today, we will visit this celebrated museum which formally opened its doors to the public in 1942 with nationwide attention. Its founding collection contained new works by artists such as Grant Wood, Thomas Hart Benton, Charles Burchfield, Zoltan Segeshy and Edward Hopper, and it remains the feature for which the Swope is best known. Of note to our residents, an exhibit called Fertile Ground: Midwest Printmaking Traditions will feature 10 works by Rudy Pozzatti. After lunch, we will tour the Indiana Theatre. This iconic Terre Haute landmark opened on January 28, 1922, and occupies a special place in American theatre architecture design. The Theatre was built by Terre Haute resident T.W. Barhydt to be a lasting gift to the city of Terre Haute and it was designed by America’s preeminent designer John Eberson to be his first prototype atmospheric theater which became his signature style that is recognized to be the gold standard of American theatre design. Additional tour possible. Price TBA (after lunch arrangements have been made).
